[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION SEE HOUSE, NO. 2856 OF 2009-2010.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act exempting certain low income senior citizens from proposition two and a half.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1	SECTION 1.	Subsection (g) of	Section	21C c	of Chap	ter 59.	as app	bearing	in t	the 2	200	8

2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:—

- 3 The local appropriating authority may vote to adopt the following exemption
- 4 to the question:

5 For residential property whose owner is 65 years of age or older and who 6 occupies said property as his principal residence, provided however, that the taxpayer's total 7 income together with the total income of taxpayer's spouse shall not exceed $75,000. For the 8 purposes of this paragraph "residence" and "taxpayers total income" shall have the same 9 meaning as used in paragraph (k) of section six of Chapter 62.

10	Any person qualifying for the exemption shall apply for the same on or before
11	July 1st of the fiscal year in question on a form provided by the assessors. In determining
12	eligibility for an exemption the assessors shall review the income tax forms for the preceding
13	year.
14	SECTION 2. Subsection (h) of said section, as so appearing, is hereby amended by
15	adding the following paragraph:—
16	The local appropriating authority may vote to adopt the following exemption
17	to the question:
18	For residential property whose owner is 65 years of age or older and who
19	occupies said property as his principal residence, provided however, that the taxpayer's total

34	purposes of this paragraph "residence" and "taxpayers total income" shall have the same
35	meaning as used in paragraph (k) of section six of Chapter 62.
36	Any person qualifying for the exemption shall apply for the same on or before
37	July 1st of the fiscal year in question on a form provided by the assessors. In determining
38	eligibility for an exemption the assessors shall review the income tax forms for the preceding
39	year.
40	SECTION 4. Subsection (j) of said section, as so appearing, is hereby amended by
41	adding the following paragraph:—
42	The local appropriating authority may vote to adopt the following exemption
43	to the question:
44	For residential property whose owner is 65 years of age or older and who
45	occupies said property as his principal residence, provided however, that the taxpayer's total
46	income together with the total income of taxpayer's spouse shall not exceed $75,000. For the
47	purposes of this paragraph "residence" and "taxpayers total income" shall have the same
48	meaning as used in paragraph (k) of section six of Chapter 62.
49	Any person qualifying for the exemption shall apply for the same on or before
50	July 1st of the fiscal year in question on a form provided by the assessors. In determining
51	eligibility for an exemption the assessors shall review the income tax forms for the preceding
52	year.

53 SECTION 5. Subsection (k) of said section, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 54 adding the following paragraph:—

55 The local appropriating authority may vote to adopt the following exemption 56 to the question:

For residential property whose owner is 65 years of age or older and who occupies said property as his principal residence, provided however, that the taxpayer's total income together with the total income of taxpayer's spouse shall not exceed $75,000. For the purposes of this paragraph "residence" and "taxpayers total income" shall have the same meaning as used in paragraph (k) of section six of Chapter 62.
Any person qualifying for the exemption shall apply for the same on or before July 1st of the fiscal year in question on a form provided by the assessors. In determining eligibility for an exemption the assessors shall review the income tax forms for the preceding 65 year.
