HOUSE No. 2587

By Messrs. Jones of North Reading and deMacedo of Plymouth, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2587) of Bradley H. Jones, Jr. and others relative to increasing government efficiency through the use of electronic paperwork. State Administration and Regulatory Oversight.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to increasing government efficiency through the use of electronic paperwork.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general law to the contrary, the secretary of
- 2 administration and finance shall increase the efficiency of government through:
- 3 (1) Reducing the use of paper through maximizing the available uses of information
- 4 technology, including alternative information technologies to substitute for paper and increasing
- 5 the use of electronic methods for the maintenance, submission, or disclosure of information, to
- 6 improve data quality, agency efficiency and responsiveness to the public;
- 7 (2) Eliminating costly and wasteful government publications through the expanded use of
- 8 electronic methods for distribution of documentation throughout state government, where
- 9 feasible and appropriate;

10 (3) Increasing and maximizing the availability of online transactions; including statutorily 11 and regulatory, required corporate filings and frequently transacted governmental business with 12 the citizens of the Commonwealth;

13 (4) Maximizing the use and availability electronic forms of payment and eliminating or 14 minimizing any prohibitive fees associated with such transactions; and

15 (5) Eliminating duplicative permitting and paperwork requirements through 16 implementing inter-agency file sharing technologies in order that electronically stored data can 17 be viewed and routed, where appropriate, by multiple agencies.

18 SECTION 2. The secretary shall investigate any current statutory impediments for the 19 reduction of the use of paper by state government and any impediments both statutory and 20 technological, for more efficient electronic data storage and dissemination. The secretary shall 21 submit his findings, along with any legislative recommendations to address those findings, to the 22 house and senate clerks, and the joint committee on state administration and regulatory oversight
23 no later than January 1, 2012.

24 SECTION 3. Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, there shall be a 25 special commission to investigate and make recommendations as to the feasibility of increasing 26 electronic filings, records management and transactions within the judiciary. Said commission 27 shall investigate the possibility of eliminating, or substantially reducing the utilization of paper 28 filings in court proceedings.

29 Said commission shall consist of twenty-five members, one member shall be the chief 30 justice of the supreme judicial court, or her designee, who shall also serve as chair; one member 31 shall be the chief justice of the appeals court, or his designee; one member shall be the chief

32 justice for administration and management, or his designee; one member shall be the chief judge
33 of the probate and family court, or his designee; one member shall be the chief judge of the land
34 court, or his designee; one member shall be the attorney general of the commonwealth, or her 35 designee; nineteen members shall be appointed by the chief justice of the supreme judicial court, 36 provided that three members shall be district attorneys from diverse dispersed areas of the 37 commonwealth, or their designees; provided further that three members shall be clerk of courts 38 in the commonwealth, or their designees; provided further that two members shall be registers of 39 deeds in the commonwealth, or their designees; provided further that two members shall be 40 registers of probate in the commonwealth, or their designees; provided further that six members 41 shall be selected from nominations provided by the Massachusetts Bar Association, provided that 42 such persons shall represent diverse practice areas and practice sizes; provided further that four 43 members shall be experts in areas of information technology, data storage, security and privacy 44 protection.

45 Said commission shall submit its findings, along with any legislative recommendations 46 necessary to address those findings, to the house and senate clerks, the joint committee on the 47 judiciary, and the joint committee on state administration and regulatory oversight no later than 48 February 1, 2012.
