By Mr. O'Flaherty of Chelsea, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2846) of Eugene L. O'Flaherty relative to making uniform the law regarding trade secrets. The Judiciary.

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION SEE HOUSE, NO. 1586 OF 2009-2010.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act making uniform the law regarding trade secrets.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Sections 42 and 42A of chapter 93 of the General Laws are hereby

2 repealed.

3 SECTION 2. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 93G the

4 following chapter:--

5 CHAPTER 93H

6 UNIFORM TRADE SECRETS ACT

7 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the UNIFORM
8 TRADE SECRETS ACT.

9 Section 2. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

10	(1) "Improper means" includes, without limitation, theft, bribery,
11	misrepresentation, or breach or inducement of a breach of a confidential relationship or other
12	duty to limit acquisition, disclosure or use of information;
13	(2) "Misappropriation" means:
14	(i) acquisition of a trade secret of another by a person who knows or who has
15	reason to know that the trade secret was acquired by improper means; or
16	(ii) disclosure or use of a trade secret of another without that person's express
17	or implied consent by a person who
18	(A) used improper means to acquire knowledge of the trade secret or
19	(B) at the time of his disclosure or use, knew or had reason to know that his
20	knowledge of the trade secret was
21	(I) derived from or through a person who had utilized improper means to
22	acquire it;
23	(II) acquired under circumstances giving rise to a duty to limit its acquisition,
24	disclosure or use; or
25	(III) derived from or through a person who owed a duty to the person seeking
26	relief to limit its acquisition, disclosure or use; or
27	(C) before a material change of his or her position, knew or had reason to know
28	that it was a trade secret and that knowledge of it had been acquired by accident or mistake.

(3) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision or agency, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(4) "Trade secret" means specified or specifiable information, whether or not fixed in tangible form or embodied in any tangible thing, including but not limited to a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, process, business strategy, or scientific, technical, financial or customer data that

(i) at the time of alleged misappropriation, derived economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, others who might obtain economic value from its acquisition, disclosure or use, and

(ii) has at all times been the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to give notice that it should not be and to ensure that it is not acquired, disclosed or used without the consent of the person asserting ownership thereof, or such person's predecessor in interest.

43 Section 3. (a) Actual or threatened misappropriation may be enjoined upon 44 equity principles, including a showing that specific information qualifying as a trade secret has 45 been or is threatened to be misappropriated. No injunction shall issue with respect to a trade 46 secret unless the trade secret is specified with sufficient particularity so as to enable, reasonably 47 under the circumstances, the respondent to prepare a reasonable defense. Upon application to the 48 court, an injunction shall be terminated when the trade secret has ceased to exist, but the 49 injunction may be continued for an additional reasonable period of time in order to eliminate 50 commercial advantage that otherwise would be derived from misappropriation.

51	(b) In exceptional circumstances, an injunction may condition future use upon
52	payment of a reasonable royalty for no longer than the period of time for which use could have
53	been prohibited. Exceptional circumstances include, but are not limited to, a material and
54	prejudicial change of position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of
55	misappropriation that renders a prohibitive injunction inequitable.
56	(c) In appropriate circumstances, affirmative acts to protect a trade secret may
57	be compelled by court order.
C ,
58	Section 4. (a) Except to the extent that a material and prejudicial change of
59	position prior to acquiring knowledge or reason to know of misappropriation renders a monetary
60	recovery inequitable, a complainant is entitled to recover damages for misappropriation of
61	specific information qualifying as a trade secret. Damages can include both the actual loss
62	caused by misappropriation and the unjust enrichment caused by misappropriation that is not
63	taken into account in computing actual loss. In lieu of damages measured by any other methods,
64	the damages caused by misappropriation may be measured by the imposition of liability for a
65	reasonable royalty for a misappropriator's unauthorized disclosure or use of a trade secret.
66	(b) If willful and malicious misappropriation exists, the court may award
67	exemplary damages in an amount not exceeding twice any award made under subsection (a).
68	Section 5. If (i) a claim of misappropriation is made or defended in bad faith,
69	(ii) a motion to enter or to terminate an injunction is made or resisted in bad faith, or (iii) willful
70	and malicious misappropriation exists, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the
71	prevailing party. In considering such an award, the court may take into account the claimant's
72	specification of trade secrets and the proof that such alleged trade secrets were misappropriated.

73	Section 6. (a) In an action under this Act, a court shall preserve the secrecy of
74	an alleged trade secret by reasonable means, which may include granting protective orders in
75	connection with discovery proceedings, holding in-camera hearings, sealing the records of the
76	action, and ordering any person involved in the litigation not to disclose an alleged trade secret
77	without prior court approval.
78	(b) In an action under this Act, averments of trade secrets and misappropriation
79	thereof shall be stated with particularity.
80	Section 7. An action for misappropriation must be brought within 3 years after
81	the misappropriation is discovered or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been
82	discovered. For the purposes of this section, a continuing misappropriation constitutes a single
83	claim.
84	Section 8. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), this Act displaces
84 85	Section 8. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), this Act displaces conflicting tort, restitutionary, and other law of this State providing civil remedies for the

94	Section 9. This Act shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general
95	purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this Act among states enacting it.
96	SECTION 3. This Act takes effect on July first, two thousand and seven, and
97	does not apply to misappropriation occurring prior to the effective date. With respect to a
98	continuing misappropriation that began prior to the effective date, the Act also does not apply to
99	the continuing misappropriation that occurs after the effective date.
