The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to provide a safe workplace for employees of the Commonwealth.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 149 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting a new 2 section 40 as follows:-

3 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the division of occupational 4 safety shall apply federal occupational and health standards applicable to private sector
5 employees as minimum standards to employees of the Commonwealth, its independent 6 authorities and other political subdivisions. Such standards shall include all statutory and 7 regulatory requirements enforced by the occupational safety and health administration with 8 respect to private sector employees, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing,
9 the general duty clause. Nothing herein shall affect any state standard that exceeds the standards 10 applied by the occupational health and safety administration.

11 The division shall have authority to conduct investigations. The commissioner shall 12 have authority to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum to compel the attendance of 13 witnesses and/or the production of documents.

14 The commissioner of the division may promulgate regulations and may issue corrective 15 orders where he has found a violation of this section or regulations promulgated hereunder.
16 Proceedings concerning the issuance of regulations or corrective orders to public officials shall 17 be adjudicatory proceedings pursuant to chapter 30A and shall be subject to judicial review 18 accordingly.

19 With respect to the exercise of its responsibilities under this section, the division shall be 20 within the department of labor but not subject to its direction and control.

21 The effective date of this section with respect to cities and towns shall be subject to the 22 provisions of section 27C of chapter 29 of the general laws.

23 Provisions of this act shall not apply to the fire service of the Commonwealth, its 24 independent authorities or other political subdivisions.
