24 (2) a fine or other penalty; or

25 (3) a judgment for divorce, support, or maintenance, or other judgment
26 rendered in connection with domestic relations.

27 (c) A party seeking recognition of a foreign-country judgment has the burden of 28 establishing that this Act applies to the foreign-country judgment.

29 SECTION 23D. STANDARDS FOR RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN-COUNTRY
30 JUDGMENT.

31 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c), a court of this state shall 32 recognize a foreign-country judgment to which this Act applies.

33 (b) A court of this state may not recognize a foreign-country judgment if:

34 (1) the judgment was rendered under a judicial system that does not
35 provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of 36 law;

37 (2) the foreign court did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant; or

38 (3) the foreign court did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter.

39 (c) A court of this state need not recognize a foreign-country judgment if:

40 (1) the defendant in the proceeding in the foreign court did not receive notice of the 41 proceeding in sufficient time to enable the defendant to defend;

42 (2) the judgment was obtained by fraud that deprived the losing party of 43 an adequate opportunity to present its case

44 (3) the judgment or the cause of action on which the judgment is based is 45 repugnant to the public policy of this state or of the United States;

46 (4) the judgment conflicts with another final and conclusive judgment;

48 between the parties under which the dispute in question was to be determined otherwise than by

51 court was a seriously inconvenient forum for the trial of the action;

52 (7) the judgment was rendered in circumstances that raise substantial
53 doubt about the integrity of the rendering court with respect to the judgment; or

54 (8) the specific proceeding in the foreign court leading to the judgment
55 was not compatible with the requirements of due process of law.

56 (d) A party resisting recognition of a foreign-country judgment has the burden of 57 establishing that a ground for nonrecognition stated in subsection (b) or (c) exists.

58 SECTION 23E. PERSONAL JURISDICTION.

59 (a) A foreign-country judgment may not be refused recognition for lack of 60 personal jurisdiction if:

61 (1) the defendant was served with process personally in the foreign
62 country;

63 (2) the defendant voluntarily appeared in the proceeding, other than for 64 the purpose of protecting property seized or threatened with seizure in the proceeding or of 65 contesting the jurisdiction of the court over the defendant;

66 (3) the defendant, before the commencement of the proceeding, had agreed to submit to 67 the jurisdiction of the foreign court with respect to the subject matter involved;

68 (4) the defendant was domiciled in the foreign country when the
69 proceeding was instituted or was a corporation or other form of business organization that had its 70 principal place of business in, or was organized under the laws of, the foreign country;

71 (5) the defendant had a business office in the foreign country and the 72 proceeding in the foreign court involved a cause of action arising out of business done by the 73 defendant through that office in the foreign country; or

74 (6) the defendant operated a motor vehicle or airplane in the foreign
75 country and the proceeding involved a cause of action arising out of that operation.

76 (b) The list of bases for personal jurisdiction in subsection (a) is not exclusive.
77 The courts of this state may recognize bases of personal jurisdiction other than those listed in 78 subsection(a) as sufficient to support a foreign-country judgment.

79 SECTION 23F. PROCEDURE FOR RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN-COUNTRY
80 JUDGMENT.

81 (a) If recognition of a foreign-country judgment is sought as an original matter,
82 the issue of recognition shall be raised by filing an action seeking recognition of the foreign-
83 country judgment.

84 (b) If recognition of a foreign-country judgment is sought in a pending action, the 85 issue of recognition may be raised by counterclaim, cross-claim, or affirmative defense.

86 SECTION 23G. EFFECT OF RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN-COUNTRY
87 JUDGMENT. If the court in a proceeding under Section 6 finds that the foreign-country
88 judgment is entitled to recognition under this Act then, to the extent that the foreign-country
89 judgment grants or denies recovery of a sum of money, the foreign-country judgment is:

90 (1) conclusive between the parties to the same extent as the judgment of a sister state
91 entitled to full faith and credit in this state would be conclusive; and

92 (2) enforceable in the same manner and to the same extent as a judgment rendered
93 in this state.

94 SECTION 23H. STAY OF PROCEEDINGS PENDING APPEAL OF FOREIGN-
95 COUNTRY JUDGMENT. If a party establishes that an appeal from a foreign-country judgment
96 is pending or will be taken, the court may stay any proceedings with regard to the foreign-
97 country judgment until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires, or the appellant has 98 had sufficient time to prosecute the appeal and has failed to do so.

99 SECTION 23I. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. An action to recognize a foreign-
100 country judgment must be commenced within the earlier of the time during which the foreign-
101 country judgment is effective in the foreign country or 15 years from the date that the foreign-
102 country judgment became effective in the foreign country.

103 SECTION 23J. UNIFORMITY OF INTERPRETATION. In applying and construing
104 this uniform act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with 105 respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

106 SECTION 23K. SAVING CLAUSE. This Act does not prevent the recognition under 107 principles of comity or otherwise of a foreign-country judgment not within the scope of this Act.

108 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect on July first, two thousand and twelve, and applies to 109 all actions commenced on or after the effective date of this Act in which the issue of recognition
110 of a foreign-country judgment is raised.
