HOUSE No. 2909

By Mr. Brodeur of Melrose, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2909) of Paul Brodeur, Denise Provost and Lydia M. X. Z. Brown for legislation to require training for police and correction officers interacting with persons with autism spectrum disorders. Public Safety and Homeland Security.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to the criminal justice training regarding persons with an autism spectrum disorder.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 116 of Chapter 6 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official edition,
2 is hereby amended by inserting the following section after Section 116E:—

3 Section 116F:

4 (Subsection A) The municipal police training committee shall establish within the recruit
5 basic training curriculum a course for regional and municipal police training schools on or before

6 January first, two thousand and thirteen for the training of law enforcement officers and 7 correction officers in the commonwealth in appropriate interactions with persons an autism
8 spectrum disorder, and also shall develop guidelines for law enforcement response to individuals
9 with an autism spectrum disorder who are victims or witnesses to crime, or suspected or 10 convicted of crime.

11 The course of instruction and the guidelines shall stress positive responses to such 12 individuals, de-escalating potentially dangerous situations, understanding of the different manner
13 in which such individuals process sensory stimuli and language, and appropriate methods of 14 interrogation.

15 Where appropriate, the training presenters shall include experts on autism spectrum
16 disorders who also have expertise in the law enforcement or corrections field.

17 As used in this section, “law enforcement officer” shall mean any officer of a local police
18 department, capital and state police, and “correction officer” shall mean any officer tasked with 19 the custody, care, or transport of incarcerated or detained persons. As used in this section, 20 “autism spectrum disorder” shall mean a disability on the autism spectrum, which includes but
21 may not be limited to autistic disorder, Asperger's disorder, pervasive developmental disorder
22 not otherwise specified, childhood disintegrative disorder, nonverbal learning disorder, or Rhetts's
23 Syndrome, as defined in such professional guidelines as the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of 24 the American Psychiatric Association.

25 (Subsection B) The course of basic training for law enforcement officers and correction
26 officers shall, no later than January first, two thousand and thirteen, include at least eight hours
27 of instruction in the procedures and techniques described below:

28 (aa) The nature and manifestations of autism spectrum disorders.

29 (bb) Appropriate techniques for interviewing or interrogating an individual with an 30 autism spectrum disorder, including techniques to ensure legality of statements made, and 31 techniques to protect the rights of the interviewee.

32 (cc) Techniques for locating an individual with an autism spectrum disorder who runs
33 away, and returning said individual while causing as little stress as possible to him or her.

34 (dd) The legal duties imposed on police officers to offer protection and assistance,
35 including guidelines for making felony and misdemeanor arrests, and appropriate techniques for 36 arrest and restraint on an individual with an autism spectrum disorder.

37 (ee) Techniques for de-escalating a potentially dangerous situation to maximize the safety
38 of both the law enforcement officer or correction officer and the individual with an autism
39 spectrum disorder.

40 (ff) Techniques for differentiating between an individual with an autism spectrum
41 disorder from an individual who is belligerent, uncooperative, or otherwise displaying traits
42 similar to the characteristics of an individual with an autism spectrum disorder.

43 (gg) Procedures to ensure the safety and wellbeing of individuals with an autism
44 spectrum disorder in a correctional facility.

45 (hh) The impact of interaction with law enforcement officers or correction officers on 46 individuals with an autism spectrum disorder.

47 (Subsection C) All law enforcement recruits shall receive the course of basic training for 48 law enforcement officers, established in subsections (A) and (B), as part of their required
49 certification process.

50 (Subsection D) The course of basic training for law enforcement officers shall be taught
51 as part of the “crisis intervention and conflict resolution” and “people with special needs”

52 components of the recruit academy training, so that there will not be an increase in the currently 53 required four hundred and eighty hours of recruit training curriculum.

54 (Subsection E) All correction officer recruits shall receive the course of basic training for 55 correction officers, established in Subsections (A) and (B), as part of their required certification
56 process.

57 (Subsection F) The Commissioner of Corrections periodically may include within the in-
58 service training curriculum a course of instruction on persons with an autism spectrum disorder
59 consistent with the provisions of Subsection B(aa) through Subsection B(hh) of this act.

60 (Subsection G) The municipal police training committee periodically may include within 61 its in-

62 service training curriculum a course of instruction on persons with an autism spectrum
63 disorder

64 consistent with the provisions of Subsection B(aa) through Subsection B(hh) of this act.
