HOUSE No. 3018

By Mr. Smith of Everett (by request), a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3018) of Ron Keohan relative to applications for local property tax exemptions. Revenue.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to applications for local property tax exemptions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 59 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 2 29, as amended by section 44 of chapter 188 of the acts of 2010, and inserting in place thereof
3 the following section:-

4 Section 29. Assessors before making an assessment shall give seasonable notice thereof
5 to all persons subject to taxation on January 1 in their respective towns. Such notice shall be 6 posted in one or more public places in each town, or shall be given in some other sufficient
7 manner, and shall require the said persons to bring into the assessors, on or before March 1 8 following, unless the assessors for cause shown extend the time to a reasonable later time but in 9 no event later than the last day for filing an application for abatement of the tax for the fiscal 10 year to which the filing relates, in case of residents a true list, containing the items required by 11 the commissioner in the form prescribed by him under section 5 of chapter 58 of all their 12 personal estate not exempt from taxation, except intangible property the income of which is 13 included in a return filed the same year in accordance with sections 22 to 25, inclusive, of chapter 62, and in case of non-residents and foreign corporations such a true list of all their personal estate in that town not exempt from taxation, and may or may not require such list to include their real estate subject to taxation in that town. It shall also require all persons, except corporations making returns to the commissioner of insurance as required by section 38 of chapter 176, to bring in to the assessors, on or before August 1 following, unless the assessors for cause shown extend the time to a reasonable later time but in no event later than the last day for filing an application for abatement of the tax for the fiscal year to which the filing relates, true lists, similarly itemized, of all real and personal estate held by them respectively for literary, educational, temperance, benevolent, charitable or scientific purposes on July 1 preceding, or at the election of any such corporation on the last day of its fiscal year preceding said July 1, together with such information relating to the exemption of such real and personal estate from taxation as may be required and in the form prescribed by the commission under sections 3 and 31 of chapter 58 and the amount of receipts and expenditures for said purposes during the year together with copies of federal tax returns containing unrelated business income taxable under section 511 of the Internal Revenue Code. The assessors may require from any person claiming an exemption from taxation under any clause of section 5 specifically listed in section 59, a full list of all such person's taxable property, both real and personal, to the extent and in the form prescribed by the commissioner under sections 5 and 31 of chapter 58.

SECTION 2. This act shall be effective for fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 2012.
