The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to a bill of rights for condominium owners.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Subsection (c) of section 10 of chapter 183A of the general laws, as 2 appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out clause (3) and inserting
3 in place thereof the following clause:-

4 (3) the minute book, which shall be kept and maintained by the organization of unit 5 owners; provided that such minute book shall be posted in a common area of the building; and.

6 SECTION 2. The second sentence of the second paragraph of said subsection (c) of said
7 section 10 of said chapter 183A, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the word
8 “request”, in line 90, the following words:- ; provided, that such expense shall be a reasonable
9 fee which shall be no greater than a per page photocopy fee of the library in the city or town 10 where the building is located.

11 SECTION 3. Subsection (f) of said section 10 of said chapter 183A, as so appearing, is 12 hereby amended by striking out clause (1) and inserting in place thereof the following clause:-

13 (1) render at least monthly, or less frequently in accordance with subsection (m), but in 14 no case less frequently than quarterly, a written report to the trustees or the managing board of 15 the organization of unit owners detailing all receipts and expenditures on behalf of the 16 organization, including beginning and ending balances and copies of all relevant bank statements 17 and reconciliations for the replacement reserve fund and any other funds of the organization for 18 which the manager or managing agent has responsibility; provided, that such report shall also 19 contain the reserve fund minimum balance and building value; and

20 SECTION 4. Said chapter 183A is hereby further amended by adding the following 21 section:-

22 Section 23. (a) The organizational and operating documents of every condominium
23 established or operating pursuant to the laws of the commonwealth shall guarantee the following
24 to each unit owner:

25 (1) that all applications by unit owners in connection with matters which require approval 26 of the manager and all requests for determinations by the manager including but not limited to 27 requests for the resolution of disputes between or among unit owners, disputes between unit
28 owners and the condominium association such as disputes concerning responsibility for repairs 29 shall be processed in a reasonably expeditious manner pursuant to uniform procedures and 30 timetables adopted in writing. The manager's decision shall be in writing and shall set forth the 31 reasons therefor, except that no reason shall be required when approval is granted;

32 (2) that the final results of any election, including a tally of the votes received by each 33 candidate, shall be posted within 1 business day following the availability of such information in 34 a prominent place accessible to all unit owners in each building;

35 (3) that the organization of unit owners shall call a meeting to fill any vacancies which 36 occur on the board within 60 days of the occurrence of such vacancy if the vacancy occurs more 37 than 6 months prior to the annual meeting of unit owners;

38 (4) that any member of a board who is elected while a unit owner in the condominium,
39 who sells his or her apartment, and who, subsequent to such sale shall no longer be a unit 40 owner in such condo minimum, shall resign from such board no later than the closing date of 41 such sale;

42
43 (5) that complete and accurate financial statements and any other statements ordinarily 44 provided to unit owners be provided in a timely fashion pursuant to section 10 and established
45 timetables. For the purposes of this clause financial statements shall include the balance sheets 46 and statements of income and expense for each of the 3 most current fiscal years and the 47 information in subsection (f) of section 10. Attached to said financial statements shall be a 48 statement which discloses (i) any controlling interest or employee or agency relationship which 49 any board member or officer of the condominium association or the spouse of such person has in 50 or with any supplier of services or materials to said condominium and (ii) any consideration the 51 value of which exceeds $100 which any such board member or officer or the spouse of such 52 person receives from such supplier;

53
54 (6) that the following documents be made available for inspection or copying by unit
55 owners during regular business hours on no more than 10 days written notice to the board: (i)
56 approved minutes of board of managers meetings, provided that such board shall have 30 days

57 from the dates of the meetings at which the minutes are approved to prepare such minutes and 58 provided further that the board may exclude matters which it deems confidential or which were 59 discussed in executive session; (ii) detailed, accurate records, in chronological order, of the 60 receipts and expenditures arising from the operation of the property; (iii) bank account and 61 financial investment statements; and (iv) all proposals received in response to a request for 62 bids to provide goods or services to the condominium the cost of which is reasonably 63 expected to exceed five thousand dollars in any 1 year; provided, that such documents shall be 64 made available within 10 days of receipt unless the board chooses to conduct closed 65 competitive bidding in which case the documents shall be made available within 10 days of the 66 selection of the successful bid; (v) reports of accountants, consultants and experts retained or 67 hired to perform services for or on behalf of the association including financial statements as 68 defined in this section provided, however, that such reports may be withheld when a majority
69 of the members of the board has voted to withhold such information. When the matter 70 concerns alleged conflict of interest or malfeasance involving board members the report may be 71 withheld only upon a vote of the majority of disinterested board members. If all board members
72 are interested parties the report may not be withheld; (vi) reports by board of health or building 73 inspectors concerning compliance with health, building and housing codes and regulations; and 74 (vii) the records of decisions by the board of managers to exclude or withdraw materials 75 pursuant to this section; provided, that such records shall be prepared in every instance that 76 materials are withheld or excluded and the record shall include the general nature of the 77 materials and the reason for withholding or excluding same;

78 (7) that in addition to any other notice required by the condominium association's 79 organizational or operating documents, notice of all board and unit owner meetings shall be

80 posted in a prominent place accessible to all unit owners in each building comprising the 81 condominium; and

82 (8)(i) that the board of managers shall not impose special assessments, or enter into 83 contracts for extraordinary expenses the cost of which exceeds limits established pursuant to 84 subclause (ii) of this clause beyond customary operating or maintenance costs, without 85 approval by a vote of the unit owners. A vote of the unit owners may be waived by the board in 86 the case of an emergency evidenced by an approved resolution of the board, or a required 87 refinancing of an existing mortgage and (ii) unless the bylaws require a unit owner vote to 88 establish the limits referred to in subclause (i), the limits shall be established by the board of 89 managers as follows. No less than once in every 5 years the board shall propose limits which 90 shall be included in the notice of the annual or any other meeting of the unit owners. An 91 opportunity for unit owners to comment on such proposal and to offer lower limits shall be 92 included in the agenda for such meeting. At the conclusion of the comment period the board 93 shall, by an open vote, adopt limits not to exceed those proposed by the board which shall be 94 effective until changed pursuant to the provisions of this clause.

95 (b) The attorney general is authorized to enforce the provisions of this section and may,
96 upon his or her own initiative, or in response to a complaint by 1 or more unit owners,
97 investigate allegations of any failure to comply with the provisions of this section.
