The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An act relative to funding for prosecutors and public defenders.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, on or before
2 October 1, 2012, the chief justice of the administrative office of the trial court shall submit to the 3 secretary of the executive office of administration and finance, the chairpersons of the house and 4 senate committees on ways and means, the chief counsel of the committee for public counsel
5 services, hereinafter referred to as CPCS and the executive director of the Massachusetts District
6 Attorneys Association a report indicating the number of all criminal and delinquency cases 7 initiated in the courts of the commonwealth during fiscal year 2011, delineated as follows: the 8 number of criminal cases filed in the district courts and in the Boston municipal court; the 9 number of youthful offender and delinquency cases filed in the juvenile courts; the number of 10 criminal cases filed in the superior courts and, of those cases, how many were cases charging 11 murder or manslaughter; and the number of petitions filed by the commonwealth in superior 12 court seeking the commitment of a respondent as a sexually dangerous person under chapter 13 123A of the General Laws. For purposes of this section the term “case” shall mean 1 defendant

14 with 1 set of related criminal charges. The report shall indicate, of those cases or petitions, the 15 number where the commonwealth was represented by an assistant district attorney. The report 16 shall also indicate, of those cases or petitions, the number where the defendant was represented 17 by a public defender employed by the CPCS and the number where the defendant was 18 represented by a private attorney employed by the CPCS.

19 In determining budgets for fiscal year 2013 and each fiscal year thereafter, the executive 20 office of administration and finance and the house and senate committees on ways and means 21 shall weight all cases as follows: each district court criminal case and juvenile delinquency case
22 shall be counted as 1; each petition seeking a commitment under chapter 123A of the General
23 Laws shall be counted as 3; each superior court criminal case shall be counted as 3; and each 24 homicide or manslaughter case shall be counted as 4. From these weights there shall be 25 determined a caseload ratio for the district attorneys and the CPCS. On or after January 1, 2013, 26 in no event shall the annual total appropriation, including supplemental funding, for the district
27 attorneys or the criminal caseload of the CPCS exceed this ratio by more than 10 per cent.
