An Act relative to moving to economic opportunity housing..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, Metropolitan 2 Boston Housing Partnership shall establish a program of rental assistance for five hundred 3 extremely low-income, working families, consisting of one or more persons, through mobile and 4 project-based vouchers; provided, that assistance shall be paid under a program to be known as 5 the Massachusetts moving to economic opportunity housing program to be administered by the 6 regional nonprofit housing agencies; provided further, that at initial occupancy a household's 7 gross annual income shall not exceed 30 per cent of the area median income as determined by 8 the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, adjusted for household size; 9 provided further, that an adult member of the household must have a work history and be 10 currently employed or seeking employment; provided further, that eligibility may continue for up

11 to six months if the adult member of the household becomes involuntarily unemployed and 12 meets work search or training participation requirements established by the department; provided 13 further, that the initial voucher value shall be the difference between the approved monthly rent 14 less the amount paid by the household; provided further, that a household shall pay thirty per 15 cent of its gross income toward rent; provided further that a household shall receive assistance 16 through this program until the tenant is paying the full amount of the rent without a subsidy for 17 six months or the household's gross annual income reaches 80 per cent of the area median
18 income, adjusted for household size, or in the case of a project-based voucher attached to a unit 19 subject to different restrictions, the restrictions imposed by such program; provided further, that 20 project-based vouchers may be used to leverage capital funds provided by private foundations 21 and shall be used to increase the affordability of units in any development; provided further, that 22 the initial amount of a household's voucher shall be reduced if the household's income increases;
23 provided further, that if the amount of the voucher is reduced, an amount equal to the reduction 24 shall be placed in an escrow account to be held for the benefit of the household; provided further, 25 that at the expiration of five years from the date of the first rental assistance payment or if the 26 household voluntarily leaves the program prior to the expiration of five years from the date of the 27 first rental assistance payment and the household's program goals have been met, the funds 28 placed in escrow shall be paid to the household; provided further, funds placed in escrow can be 29 used by the household prior to completing the program in efforts to attain their program goals; 30 provided further, that notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the release of 31 the escrowed funds to a household, including interest earned thereon, shall not create any tax 32 liability for the household, and the funds may be counted as the household's contribution toward 33 any match required from an existing individual development account, so-called, or similar

34 program; provided further, that if the household is terminated from the program for cause, the 35 escrowed funds shall revert to the department; provided further, that a household participating in 36 this program shall remain eligible for state and federal assistance programs for which they 37 otherwise qualify; provided further, that each household shall have a stabilization worker, and 38 the department shall use funds provided for this program for stabilization workers who will link 39 households to supports including job training, education, and childcare opportunities available to 40 members of participating households or to facilitate a household's participation in existing 41 programs to the extent such programs are available and may enter into agreements with other 42 public and private agencies for the provision of such services; provided further, that a mobile 43 voucher whose use is or has been discontinued shall be re-assigned or converted to a project-44 based voucher within 90 days; and provided further, that the department shall pay agencies for 45 the costs of administering the program.
