119 question in the audited precincts. When such comparison reveals a discrepancy between the 120 hand-counted audit and the originally reported tally of the audited precincts the discrepancy shall 121 be analyzed to ascertain its cause. The state secretary shall oversee the analysis and shall publish 122 the findings and make the findings available online, along with the factual information on which 123 such findings were based, within 180 days.

124 (g) If there is a discrepancy between the results reached pursuant to an audit and 125 originally reported tallies, the hand count of the official paper ballots conducted pursuant to the 126 audit shall be the official vote of record and the board of registrars or election commission shall 127 amend each precinct tally sheet, official return book and check list delivered to the office of the 128 registrars.

129 (h) If there is a discrepancy between the results reached in a precinct pursuant to an audit
130 and the originally reported tallies in that precinct in any audited race or any audited ballot
131 question that reasonably leads to doubt about the accuracy of election results, the state secretary 132 may order audits of such additional precincts, offices, or ballot questions as shall be necessary to 133 ensure that the election results are accurate.

134 (i) (1) Upon receipt of the results of the audit, the state secretary shall make information 135 in the audit reports publicly available on a precinct-by-precinct basis as soon as practicable, but 136 no later than 10 days after receipt of the audit report form, in both human and machine readable
137 formats, such as a spreadsheet or comma-separated-value file. This information shall also be 138 posted on the electronic website of the state secretary.

139 (2) The state secretary shall publish the results of the audit in the report required by 140 section 133 or in some other document in which the results of the audit can easily be compared 141 with the number of votes received by each candidate for nomination and for election for a state 142 and federal office.

143 (3) The audit and publication of the results thereof shall be completed prior to the time 144 the commonwealth shall make a final determination concerning the appointment of its 145 presidential electors.

146 (j) The state secretary shall promulgate rules and regulations to implement the 147 requirements of this section.
