4 Loans; Reasonable Steps and Good Faith Efforts; Safe Harbor; Regulatory Authority.

5           (a) As used in this section, the following words shall, unless the context clearly requires 6 otherwise, have the following meanings:

7           “Borrower”, a mortgagor of a mortgage loan.

8           “Certain mortgage loan,” shall mean a loan to a natural person made primarily for 9 personal, family or household purposes secured wholly or partially by a mortgage on an owner-10 occupied residential property that bears one or more of the following loan features:

11           (i)     an introductory interest rate granted for a period of 3 years or less and such 12 introductory rate is at least 2 percent lower than the fully indexed rate;

- 13           (ii)     interest-only payments for any period of time;
- 14           (iii)    a payment option feature, where any one of the payment options is less than

- 16           (iv)     did not require full documentation of income or assets;
- 17           (v)     prepayment penalties that exceed section 56 of chapter 183 of the General Laws 18 or applicable federal law;
- 19           (vi)    the loan was underwritten with a Loan-to-Value ratio at or above 90 percent and 20 the ratio of the borrower’s debt, including all housing-related and recurring monthly debt, to the 21 borrower’s income exceeded 38 percent; or
- 22           (vii)   the loan was underwritten as a component of a loan transaction wherein the 23 combined Loan-to-Value ratio was above 95 percent.

24           “Creditor”, a person or entity that holds or controls, partially, wholly, indirectly, directly, 25 or in a nominee capacity, a mortgage loan securing an owner-occupied residential property, 26 including, without limitation, an originator, holder, investor, assignee, successor, trust, trustee, 27 nominee holder, Mortgage Electronic Registration System or mortgage servicer, including the 28 Federal National Mortgage Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation.

29           “Creditor” shall also include any servant, employee or agent of a creditor.

30           “Creditor’s representative”, a person who has the authority to negotiate and approve the 31 terms of and modify a mortgage loan.

32           “Modified mortgage loan”, a mortgage modified from its original terms including, but not 33 limited to, a loan modified pursuant to 1 of the following: (i) the Home Affordable Modification

34 Program; (ii) the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation’s Loan Modification Program; (iii) any 35 modification program that a lender uses which is based on accepted principles and the safety and 36 soundness of the institution and authorized by the National Credit Union Administration, the 37 division of banks or any other instrumentality of the commonwealth; (iv) the Federal Housing 38 Administration; or (v) a similar federal loan modification plan.

39 “Mortgage loan”, a loan to a natural person made primarily for personal, family or 40 household purposes secured wholly or partially by a mortgage on residential property.

41 “Net present value”, the present net value of a residential property based on a calculation
42 using 1 of the following: (i) the federal Home Affordable Modification Program Base Net
43 Present Value Model, (ii) the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation’s Loan Modification 44 Program, (iii) the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency’s loan program used solely by the 45 agency to compare the expected economic outcome of a loan with or without a modified 46 mortgage loan, or (iv) any model approved by the division of banks to consider the total present 47 value of a series of future cash flows relative to a mortgage loan.

48 “Residential property”, real property located in the commonwealth having thereon a 49 dwelling house with accommodations for 4 or less separate households and occupied, or to be 50 occupied, in whole or in part by the obligor on the mortgage debt; provided, however, that 51 residential property shall be limited to the principal residence of a person; provided further, that 52 residential property shall not include an investment property or residence other than a primary
53 residence; and provided further, that residential property shall not include residential property 54 taken in whole or in part as collateral for a commercial loan; and provided further that residential

55 property shall not include a property subject to condemnation, receivership, or proceedings in 56 United States Bankruptcy Court.

57 (b) A creditor shall not publish notice of a foreclosure sale, as required by section 14 of 58 this chapter, upon certain mortgage loans unless it has first taken reasonable steps and made a 59 good faith effort to avoid foreclosure. The determination of whether a creditor has taken 60 reasonable steps and made a good faith effort to avoid foreclosure shall mean that the creditor 61 has considered: (i) an assessment of the borrower's current circumstances including, without 62 limitation, the borrower's current income, total debts and obligations; (ii) the net present value of 63 receiving payments pursuant to a modified mortgage loan as compared to the anticipated net 64 recovery following foreclosure; and (iii) the interests of the creditor, including, without 65 limitation, investors.

66 (1) In interpreting this subsection (b), except as otherwise specified in a contract, a 67 servicer of pooled residential mortgages may determine whether the net present value of the 68 payments on the modified mortgage loan is likely to be greater than the anticipated net recovery 69 that would result from foreclosure to all investors and holders of beneficial interests in such 70 investment, but not to any individual or groups of investors or beneficial interest holders, and 71 shall be deemed to act in the best interests of all such investors or holders of beneficial interests 72 if the servicer agrees to or implements a modified mortgage loan or takes reasonable loss 73 mitigation actions that comply with this section. Further, any modified mortgage loan offered to 74 the borrower must comply with current federal and state law, including, without limitation, 940
75 C.M.R. 8.00 et seq., and the borrower must be able to reasonably afford to repay the modified 76 mortgage loan according to its scheduled payments.

77           (2) Safe Harbor. A creditor shall be presumed to have acted in good faith and deemed to 78 comply with subsection (b), if, prior to publishing a notice of a foreclosure sale, as required by 79 section 14 of this chapter, the creditor:

80           (i) determines a borrower’s current ability to make monthly payments (the “affordable 81 monthly payment”), reasonably taking into account the borrower’s current circumstances 82 including income, debts and obligations;

83           (ii) identifies a modified mortgage loan that achieves the borrower’s affordable monthly 84 payment, which may include one or more of the following: reduction in principal; reduction in 85 interest rate; or an increase in amortization period but not more than a 15 year increase not to 86 exceed a 45 year period;

87           (iii) conducts an analysis comparing the net present value of the modified mortgage loan 88 and the creditor’s anticipated net recovery that would result from foreclosure; and

89           (iv) either (a) in all circumstances where the net present value of the modified mortgage 90 loan exceeds the anticipated net recovery at foreclosure, agrees to modify the loan in a manner 91 that provides the affordable monthly payment, or (b) in circumstances where the net present 92 value of the modified mortgage loan is less than the anticipated net recovery of the foreclosure, 93 or does not meet the borrower’s affordable monthly payment, notifies the borrower that no 94 modified mortgage loan will be offered and provides a written summary of the creditor’s net 95 present value analysis and the borrower’s current ability to make monthly payments, after which 96 the creditor may proceed with the foreclosure process in conformity with this chapter.

97           (3) The division of banks may adopt, amend or repeal rules and regulations to aid in the 98 administration and enforcement of this section, including regulations that determine further

99 requirements for reasonable steps and good faith efforts to avoid foreclosures as required by 100 subsection (b) and that provide safe harbors for compliance in addition to that set forth in this 101 section.

102 (c) In accordance with this section, for certain mortgage loans, the creditor shall send 103 notice, concurrently with the notice required by subsection (g) of section 35A of this chapter, of 104 the borrower's rights to pursue a modified mortgage loan. Said notice shall be deemed to be 105 delivered to the mortgagor when sent by first class mail and certified mail or similar service by a 106 private carrier to the mortgagor at the mortgagor's address last known to the mortgagee or 107 anyone holding thereunder. A copy of said notice shall also be filed with the commissioner of the 108 division of banks and the office of the attorney general. The timeframe for determining whether a 109 modified mortgage loan is offered shall occur within 150 days as follows. No more than 30 days 110 following delivery of the notice as provided for in this section, a borrower who holds a certain 111 mortgage loan shall notify a creditor of (i) the borrower's intent to pursue a modified mortgage 112 loan which shall include a statement of the borrower's income and a complete list of total debts 113 and obligations at the time of receipt of the notice; (ii) the borrower's intent to pursue an 114 alternative to foreclosure, including a short sale or deed in lieu; (iii) the borrower's intent not to 115 pursue a modified mortgage loan and pursue the 150 day right to cure period described in section 116 35A of this chapter ; or (iv) the borrower's intent to waive the 150 day right to cure period and 117 proceed to foreclosure. A borrower who holds a certain mortgage loan and fails to respond to the 118 creditor within 30 days of delivery of the notice provided for in this section shall be deemed to 119 have forfeited the 150 day right-to-cure period and shall be subject to a right-to-cure period 120 lasting 90 days. A borrower shall be presumed to have notified the creditor if the borrower 121 provides proof of delivery through the United States Postal Service or similar carrier. No more

122 than 30 days following receipt of the borrower's notification that the borrower intends to pursue 123 a modified mortgage loan, a creditor shall provide the borrower with its assessment in writing 124 pursuant to subsection (b). The assessment shall include, but not be limited to (i) a written 125 statement of the borrower's income, debts and obligations as determined by the creditor; (ii) the 126 creditor's net present value analysis of the mortgage loan; (iii) the creditor's anticipated net 127 recovery at foreclosure; (iv) a statement of the interests of the creditor; and (v) a modified 128 mortgage loan offer pursuant to the requirements of this section or notice that no modified 129 mortgage loan will be offered. Where a modified mortgage loan is offered, the offer shall include 130 the first and last name(s) and contact phone number(s) of the creditor's representative. The 131 assessment shall be provided by first class and certified mail. A creditor shall be presumed to 132 have provided the assessment to the borrower if the creditor provides proof of delivery through 133 the United States Postal Service or similar carrier. A borrower who receives a modified mortgage 134 loan offer from a creditor shall respond within 30 days of receipt of the assessment and offer of a 135 modified mortgage loan. The borrower may (i) accept the offer of a loan modification as 136 provided by the creditor; (ii) make a reasonable counteroffer; or (iii) state that the borrower 137 wishes to waive the borrower's rights as provided by this section and proceed to foreclosure. The 138 borrower's response shall be in writing and, where a counteroffer is proposed, shall include 139 substantiating documentation in support of the counteroffer. The response shall be provided by 140 first class and certified mail. A borrower shall be presumed to have responded if the borrower
141 provides proof of delivery through the United States Postal Service or similar carrier. A 142 borrower who fails to respond to the creditor within 30 days of receipt of a modified mortgage 143 loan offer shall be deemed to have forfeited the 150 day right-to-cure period and shall be subject 144 to a right-to-cure period lasting 90 days. Where a counteroffer is proposed, the creditor shall 145 accept, reject or propose a counteroffer to the borrower within 30 days of receipt. Pursuant to 146 this section, additional offers by both parties shall be considered during the 150 right-to-cure 147 period provided, however, that a borrower may at any time state, in writing, that the borrower 148 wishes to waive the borrower's rights as provided by this section and proceed to foreclosure.

149 Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a creditor and a borrower from 150 negotiating the terms of a modified mortgage loan by telephone or in person following the initial 151 offer of a modified mortgage loan by a creditor provided, however, that all offers, whether by a 152 creditor or a borrower, shall be in writing and signed by the offeror. The right to a modified 153 mortgage loan, as described in this section, shall be granted once during any 3 year period, 154 regardless of the mortgage holder.

155 (d) The notice required in subsection (c) shall, at a minimum, include the appropriate 156 contact information for modification assistance within the office of the attorney general. The 157 division of banks shall adopt regulations in accordance with this subsection.

158 (e) Nothing in this section shall prevent a creditor from offering or accepting alternatives 159 to foreclosure, such as a short sale or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, if the borrower requests such 160 alternatives, rejects a modified mortgage loan offer or does not qualify for a modified mortgage 161 loan pursuant to this section.

162 (f) The division of banks shall, in consultation with the office of the attorney general, 163 track the resolution of certain mortgage loans and provide a report of said results to the joint 164 committee on financial services on December 31, 2013, and each subsequent year on December 165 31, through the year 2017.

166 (g) Prior publishing a notice of a foreclosure sale, as required by section 14 of this 167 chapter, the creditor, or where the creditor is not a natural person, an officer or duly authorized 168 agent of the creditor, must certify compliance with this section in an affidavit based upon a 169 review of the creditor's business records. The creditor, or an officer or duly authorized agent of 170 the creditor, shall record this affidavit with the appropriate registry of deeds, or for registered 171 land, with the land court.

172 SECTION 2. Section 35 of chapter 244 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
173 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following new Section:-

174 Section 35C. Prohibited Conduct In Connection with Foreclosure

175 For purposes of this section, the following words shall have the following meanings:

176 "Creditor", a person or entity that holds or controls, partially, wholly, indirectly, directly, 177 or in a nominee capacity, a mortgage loan securing a residential property, including, without 178 limitation, an originator, holder, investor, assignee, successor, trust, trustee, nominee holder, 179 Mortgage Electronic Registration System or mortgage servicer, including the Federal National 180 Mortgage Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation. "Creditor" shall also 181 include any servant, employee or agent of a creditor.

182 "Borrower" shall mean a mortgagor of a mortgage loan.

183 "Mortgage loan", a loan to a natural person made primarily for personal, family or 184 household purposes secured wholly or partially by a mortgage on residential property.

185 "Residential property", real property located in the commonwealth having thereon a 186 dwelling house with accommodations for 4 or less separate households and occupied, or to be

187 occupied, in whole or in part by the obligor on the mortgage debt; provided, however, that 188 residential property shall be limited to the principal residence of a person; provided further, that 189 residential property shall not include an investment property or residence other than a primary
190 residence; and provided further, that residential property shall not include residential property 191 taken in whole or in part as collateral for a commercial loan.

192 (a) Proper documentation prior to foreclosure. A creditor shall not publish notice of 193 foreclosure, pursuant to section 14 of this chapter, when it knows or should know that it is not 194 the present holder of the mortgage loan, including, without limitation, if the creditor is not the 195 original mortgagee and commences foreclosure without possessing a valid written, signed and 196 dated assignment evidencing the assignment of the mortgage, in accordance with section 14 of 197 chapter 244.

198 (b) No imposition of unfair costs. A creditor violates this chapter if it imposes upon a 199 third party the cost of correcting, curing, or confirming documentation relating to the sale, 200 transfer, or assignment of a mortgage loan, including, without limitation, a creditor must bear the 201 costs related to curative actions taken because a foreclosure was commenced without the 202 creditor's possession of a valid, written, signed, and dated assignment evidencing the assignment 203 of the mortgage, in violation of section fourteen of chapter two hundred and forty-four. Further, 204 a third party may recover all of its costs for having to correct, cure, or confirm documentation.

205 (c) No misrepresentations. A creditor violates this chapter if it makes statements to a 206 state or federal court related to foreclosure or compliance with this chapter, orally or in writing, 207 that it knows or should know are false, including, without limitation, statements about the 208 offering of a loan modification, the borrower's history of payments, the validity of the 209 assignment of the mortgage loan, that the creditor is the record holder of the mortgage loan, or 210 the creditor's compliance with any other requirements of this chapter.

211 (d) No imposition of fees for services not performed. A creditor violates this chapter if 212 the creditor imposes a fee upon a borrower for goods not rendered or services not performed in 213 connection with a foreclosure.

214 (e) Splitting charges: No person shall give and no person shall accept any portion, split, 215 or percentage of any charge made or received for the rendering of a service in connection with a 216 transaction involving a foreclosure upon a mortgage loan other than for services actually 217 performed.

218 (f) The Division of Banks may adopt, amend or repeal rules and regulations to aid in the 219 administration and enforcement of this Section.

220 SECTION 3. Section 14 of chapter 244 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
221 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the existing section 14 with the following new 222 Section:

223 Section 14. The mortgagee or person having his estate in the land mortgaged, or a person 224 authorized by the power of sale, or the attorney duly authorized by a writing under seal, or the 225 legal guardian or conservator of such mortgagee or person acting in the name of such mortgagee 226 or person, may, upon breach of condition and without action, do all the acts authorized or 227 required by the power; but no sale under such power shall be effectual to foreclose a mortgage, 228 unless, previous to such sale, notice thereof has been published once in each of 3 successive 229 weeks, the first publication to be not less than 21 days before the day of sale, in a newspaper, if 230 any, published in the town where the land lies or in a newspaper with general circulation in the 231 town where the land lies and notice thereof has been sent by registered mail to the owner or 232 owners of record of the equity of redemption as of 30 days prior to the date of sale, said notice to 233 be mailed by first class and certified mail at least 14 days prior to the date of sale to said owner 234 or owners to the address set forth in section 61 of chapter 185, if the land is then registered or, in 235 the case of unregistered land, to the last address of the owner or owners of the equity of 236 redemption appearing on the records of the holder of the mortgage, if any, or if none, to the 237 address of the owner or owners as given on his deed or on the petition for probate by which he 238 acquired title, if any, or if in either case no owner appears, then mailed by registered mail to the 239 address to which the tax collector last sent the tax bill for the mortgaged premises to be sold, or if 240 no tax bill has been sent for the last preceding three years, then mailed by registered mail to the 241 address of any of the parcels of property in the name of said owner of record which are to be sold 242 under the power of sale and unless a copy of said notice of sale has been sent by registered mail 243 to all persons of record as of 30 days prior to the date of sale holding an interest in the property 244 junior to the mortgage being foreclosed, said notice to be mailed at least 14 days prior to the date 245 of sale to each such person at the address of such person set forth in any document evidencing 246 the interest or to the last address of such person known to the mortgagee. Any person of record 247 as of thirty days prior to the date of sale holding an interest in the property junior to the mortgage 248 being foreclosed may waive at any time, whether prior or subsequent to the date of sale, the right 249 to receive notice by mail to such person under this section and such waiver shall be deemed to 250 constitute compliance with such notice requirement for all purposes. If no newspaper is 251 published in such town, or if there is no newspaper with general circulation in the town where 252 the land lies, notice may be published in a newspaper published in the county where the land lies, 253 and this provision shall be implied in every power of sale mortgage in which it is not expressly

254 set forth. A newspaper which by its title page purports to be printed or published in such town, 255 city or county, and having a circulation therein, shall be sufficient for the purpose.

256 The following form of foreclosure notice may be used and may be altered as 257 circumstances require; but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the use of other forms.

280 Present holder of said mortgage. _____

281 A notice of sale in the above form, published in accordance with the power in the 282 mortgage and with this chapter, together with such other or further notice, if any, as is required 283 by the mortgage, shall be a sufficient notice of the sale; and the premises shall be deemed to have 284 been sold, and the deed thereunder shall convey the premises, subject to and with the benefit of 285 all restrictions, easements, improvements, outstanding tax titles, municipal or other public taxes, 291 contract with the purchaser.

292 In the event a mortgagee holds a mortgage pursuant to an assignment, for purposes of this 293 section and section 21 of chapter 183, no notice pursuant to this section shall be valid unless (i) 294 at the time such notice is mailed, an assignment (or a chain of assignments) evidencing the 295 assignment of the mortgage to the foreclosing mortgagee has been duly recorded in the 296 appropriate registry of deeds or, for registered land, with the land court, and (ii) the recording 297 information for all recorded assignments is referenced in the notice of sale required in this 298 section. The notice shall not be defective if any holder within the chain of assignments either 299 changed its name or merged into another entity during the time it was the mortgage holder, 300 provided it is recited within the body of the notice the fact of any merger, consolidation, 301 amendment, conversion or acquisition of assets causing the change in name or identity, the 302 recital of which shall be conclusive in favor of any bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, lienholder or 303 encumbrancer of value relying in good faith thereon.

304 SECTION 4. Section 1 shall take effect on October 1, 2012 and apply to all mortgages of 305 residential property located in the commonwealth which secures a loan before, on or after the 306 effective date of this act. Said section 1 shall not apply to such mortgages accelerated or whose 307 statutory condition has been violated under the terms of the mortgage to secure the note prior to 308 the effective date of this act.
