An Act to prevent unlawful and unnecessary foreclosures.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 244 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out
2 section 14, as appearing in the 2010 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following 3 section:-

4           Section 14. The mortgagee or person having estate in the land mortgaged, or a person 5 authorized by the power of sale, or the attorney duly authorized by a writing under seal, or the 6 legal guardian or conservator of such mortgagee or person acting in the name of such mortgagee 7 or person, may, upon breach of condition and without action, perform all acts authorized or 8 required by the power; provided, however, that no sale under such power shall be effectual to 9 foreclose a mortgage, unless, previous to such sale, notice thereof has been published once in 10 each of 3 successive weeks, the first publication to be not less than 21 days before the day of 11 sale, in a newspaper, if any, published in the town where the land lies or in a newspaper with 12 general circulation in the town where the land lies and notice thereof has been sent by registered 13 mail to the owner or owners of record of the equity of redemption as of 30 days prior to the date 14 of sale, said notice to be mailed by registered mail at least 14 days prior to the date of sale to said

15 owner or owners to the address set forth in section 61 of chapter 185, if the land is then 16 registered or, in the case of unregistered land, to the last address of the owner or owners of the 17 equity of redemption appearing on the records of the holder of the mortgage, if any, or if none, to 18 the address of the owner or owners as given on the deed or on the petition for probate by which 19 he acquired title, if any, or if in either case no owner appears, then mailed by registered mail to 20 the address to which the tax collector last sent the tax bill for the mortgaged premises to be sold, 21 or if no tax bill has been sent for the last preceding 3 years, then mailed by registered mail to the 22 address of any of the parcels of property in the name of said owner of record which are to be sold 23 under the power of sale and unless a copy of said notice of sale has been sent by registered mail 24 to all persons of record as of 30 days prior to the date of sale holding an interest in the property 25 junior to the mortgage being foreclosed, said notice to be mailed at least 14 days prior to the date 26 of sale to each such person at the address of such person set forth in any document evidencing 27 the interest or to the last address of such person known to the mortgagee. Any person of record 28 as of 30 days prior to the date of sale holding an interest in the property junior to the mortgage 29 being foreclosed may waive at any time, whether prior or subsequent to the date of sale, the right 30 to receive notice by mail to such person under this section and such waiver shall be deemed to 31 constitute compliance with such notice requirement for all purposes. If no newspaper is 32 published in such town, or if there is no newspaper with general circulation in the town where 33 the land lies, notice may be published in a newspaper published in the county where the land lies, 34 and this provision shall be implied in every power of sale mortgage in which it is not expressly 35 set forth. A newspaper which by its title page purports to be printed or published in such town, 36 city or county, and having a circulation therein, shall be sufficient for the purpose.

37           The following form of foreclosure notice may be used and may be altered as 38 circumstances require; but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the use of other forms.

62 A notice of sale in the above form, published in accordance with the power in the 63 mortgage and with this chapter, together with such other or further notice, if any, as is required 64 by the mortgage, shall be a sufficient notice of the sale; and the premises shall be deemed to have 65 been sold, and the deed thereunder shall convey the premises, subject to and with the benefit of 66 all restrictions, easements, improvements, outstanding tax titles, municipal or other public taxes,

71 included in the notice of sale, which are not stated at the sale and included in the auctioneer's 72 contract with the purchaser.

73 In the event a mortgagee holds a mortgage pursuant to an assignment, for purposes of this 74 section and section 21 of chapter 183, no notice pursuant to this section shall be valid unless (i) 75 at the time such notice is mailed, an assignment, or a chain of assignments, evidencing the 76 assignment of the mortgage to the foreclosing mortgagee has been duly recorded in the

77 appropriate registry of deeds or, for registered land, with the land court, and (ii) the recording 78 information for all recorded assignments is referenced in the notice of sale required in this 79 section. The notice shall not be defective if any holder within the chain of assignments either 80 changed its name or merged into another entity during the time it was the mortgage holder, 81 provided it is recited within the body of the notice the fact of any merger, consolidation, 82 amendment, conversion or acquisition of assets causing the change in name or identity, the 83 recital of which shall be conclusive in favor of any bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, lienholder or 84 encumbrancer of value relying in good faith thereon.

142 (b) A creditor shall not publish notice of a foreclosure sale, as required by section 14, 143 upon certain mortgage loans unless it has first taken reasonable steps and made a good faith 144 effort to avoid foreclosure. The determination of whether a creditor has taken reasonable steps 145 and made a good faith effort to avoid foreclosure shall mean that the creditor has considered: (i) 146 an assessment of the borrower's current circumstances including, without limitation, the 147 borrower's current income, total debts and obligations; (ii) the net present value of receiving 148 payments pursuant to a modified mortgage loan as compared to the anticipated net recovery 149 following foreclosure; and (iii) the interests of the creditor, including, without limitation, 150 investors.

151 (1) Except as otherwise specified in a contract, a servicer of pooled residential mortgages 152 may determine whether the net present value of the payments on the modified mortgage loan is 153 likely to be greater than the anticipated net recovery that would result from foreclosure to all 154 investors and holders of beneficial interests in such investment, but not to any individual or 155 groups of investors or beneficial interest holders, and shall be deemed to act in the best interests 156 of all such investors or holders of beneficial interests if the servicer agrees to or implements a 157 modified mortgage loan or takes reasonable loss mitigation actions that comply with this section.
158 Any modified mortgage loan offered to the borrower shall comply with current federal and state 159 law, including, without limitation, all rules and regulations pertaining to mortgage loans and the 160 borrower shall be able to reasonably afford to repay the modified mortgage loan according to its 161 scheduled payments.

162 (2) A creditor shall be presumed to have acted in good faith and deemed to comply with 163 this subsection , if, prior to publishing a notice of a foreclosure sale, as required by section 14, 164 the creditor:

165 (i) determines a borrower's current ability to make monthly payments, reasonably taking 166 into account the borrower's current circumstances including income, debts and obligations;

167 (ii) identifies a modified mortgage loan that achieves the borrower's affordable monthly 168 payment, which may include 1 or more of the following: reduction in principal; reduction in 169 interest rate; or an increase in amortization period but not more than a 15 year increase not to 170 exceed a 45 year amortization period;

171 (iii) conducts an analysis comparing the net present value of the modified mortgage loan 172 and the creditor's anticipated net recovery that would result from foreclosure, such analysis shall 173 be deemed compliant if in accordance with the formula presented in one of the following: (i) the 174 Home Affordable Modification Program; (ii) the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's Loan 175 Modification Program; (iii) any modification program that a lender uses which is based on 176 accepted principles and the safety and soundness of the institution and authorized by the National 177 Credit Union Administration, the division of banks or any other instrumentality of the 178 commonwealth; (iv) the Federal Housing Administration; or (v) a similar federal loan 179 modification plan; and

180 (iv) either (a) in all circumstances where the net present value of the modified mortgage 181 loan exceeds the anticipated net recovery at foreclosure, agrees to modify the loan in a manner 182 that provides for the affordable monthly payment, or (b) in circumstances where the net present 183 value of the modified mortgage loan is less than the anticipated net recovery of the foreclosure,

184 or does not meet the borrower's affordable monthly payment, notifies the borrower that no 185 modified mortgage loan will be offered and provides a written summary of the creditor's net 186 present value analysis and the borrower's current ability to make monthly payments, after which 187 the creditor may proceed with the foreclosure process in conformity with this chapter.

188 (3) The division of banks may adopt, amend or repeal rules and regulations to aid in the 189 administration and enforcement of this section, including regulations that determine further 190 requirements for reasonable steps and good faith efforts to avoid foreclosures and that provide 191 safe harbors for compliance in addition to that set forth in this section.

192 (c) In accordance with this section, for certain mortgage loans, the creditor shall send 193 notice, concurrently with the notice required by subsection (g) of section 35A, of the borrower's 194 rights to pursue a modified mortgage loan. Said notice shall be deemed to be delivered to the 195 mortgagor when sent by first class mail and certified mail or similar service by a private carrier 196 to the mortgagor at the mortgagor's address last known to the mortgagee or anyone holding 197 thereunder. A copy of said notice shall be filed with the commissioner of the division of banks 198 and the office of the attorney general. The timeframe for determining whether a modified 199 mortgage loan is offered shall occur within 150 days. No more than 30 days following delivery 200 of the notice as provided for in this section, a borrower who holds a certain mortgage loan shall 201 notify a creditor of (i) the borrower's intent to pursue a modified mortgage loan which shall 202 include a statement of the borrower's income and a complete list of total debts and obligations at 203 the time of receipt of the notice; (ii) the borrower's intent to pursue an alternative to foreclosure, 204 including a short sale or deed in lieu of foreclosure; (iii) the borrower's intent not to pursue a 205 modified mortgage loan and pursue the 150 day right to cure period described in section 35A; or 206 (iv) the borrower's intent to waive the 150 day right to cure period and proceed to foreclosure. A

207 borrower who holds a certain mortgage loan and fails to respond to the creditor within 30 days of 208 delivery of the notice provided for in this section shall be deemed to have forfeited the 150 day 209 right-to-cure period and shall be subject to a right-to-cure period of 90 days. A borrower shall be 210 presumed to have notified the creditor if the borrower provides proof of delivery through the 211 United States postal service or similar carrier. No more than 30 days following receipt of the 212 borrower's notification that the borrower intends to pursue a modified mortgage loan, a creditor 213 shall provide the borrower with its assessment in writing pursuant to subsection (b). The 214 assessment shall include, but not be limited to (i) a written statement of the borrower's income, 215 debts and obligations as determined by the creditor; (ii) the creditor's net present value analysis 216 of the mortgage loan; (iii) the creditor's anticipated net recovery at foreclosure; (iv) a statement 217 of the interests of the creditor; and (v) a modified mortgage loan offer pursuant to the 218 requirements of this section or notice that no modified mortgage loan will be offered. Where a 219 modified mortgage loan is offered, the offer shall include the first and last name(s) and contact 220 phone number(s) of the creditor's representative. The assessment shall be provided by first class 221 and certified mail. A creditor shall be presumed to have provided the assessment to the borrower 222 if the creditor provides proof of delivery through the United States postal service or similar 223 carrier. A borrower who receives a modified mortgage loan offer from a creditor shall respond 224 within 30 days of receipt of the assessment and offer of a modified mortgage loan. The borrower 225 may (i) accept the offer of a loan modification as provided by the creditor; (ii) make a reasonable 226 counteroffer; or (iii) state that the borrower wishes to waive the borrower's rights as provided by 227 this section and proceed to foreclosure. The borrower's response shall be in writing and, where a 228 counteroffer is proposed, shall include substantiating documentation in support of the 229 counteroffer. The response shall be provided by first class and certified mail. A borrower shall 230 be presumed to have responded if the borrower provides proof of delivery through the United 231 States postal service or similar carrier. A borrower who fails to respond to the creditor within 30 232 days of receipt of a modified mortgage loan offer shall be deemed to have forfeited the 150 day 233 right-to-cure period and shall be subject to a right-to-cure period of 90 days. Where a 234 counteroffer is proposed, the creditor shall accept, reject or propose a counteroffer to the 235 borrower within 30 days of receipt. Pursuant to this section, additional offers by both parties 236 shall be considered during the 150 right-to-cure period provided, however, that a borrower may 237 at any time state, in writing, that the borrower wishes to waive the borrower's rights as provided 238 by this section and proceed to foreclosure. Nothing in this section shall be construed as 239 preventing a creditor and a borrower from negotiating the terms of a modified mortgage loan by 240 telephone or in person following the initial offer of a modified mortgage loan by a creditor; 241 provided, however, that all offers, whether by a creditor or a borrower, shall be in writing and 242 signed by the offeror. The right to a modified mortgage loan, as described in this section, shall be 243 granted once during any 3 year period, regardless of the mortgage holder.

244 (d) The notice required in subsection (c) shall, at a minimum, include the appropriate 245 contact information for modification assistance within the office of the attorney general. The 246 division of banks shall adopt regulations in accordance with this subsection.

247 (e) Nothing in this section shall prevent a creditor from offering or accepting alternatives 248 to foreclosure, such as a short sale or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure, if the borrower requests such 249 alternatives, rejects a modified mortgage loan offer or does not qualify for a modified mortgage 250 loan pursuant to this section.

251 (g) Prior to publishing a notice of a foreclosure sale, as required by section 14, the 252 creditor, or where the creditor is not a natural person, an officer or duly authorized agent of the 253 creditor, shall certify compliance with this section in an affidavit based upon a review of the 254 creditor's business records. The creditor, or an officer or duly authorized agent of the creditor, 255 shall record this affidavit with the appropriate registry of deeds, or for registered land, with the 256 land court.

257 SECTION 3. Chapter 244 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 258 adding the following section:-

259 Section 35C. As used in this section, the following words shall, unless the context 260 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:

261 "Borrower" shall mean a mortgagor of a mortgage loan.

262 "Creditor", a person or entity that holds or controls, partially, wholly, indirectly, directly, 263 or in a nominee capacity, a mortgage loan securing a residential property, including, without 264 limitation, an originator, holder, investor, assignee, successor, trust, trustee, nominee holder, 265 Mortgage Electronic Registration System or mortgage servicer, including the Federal National 266 Mortgage Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation. "Creditor" shall also 267 include any servant, employee or agent of a creditor.

268 "Mortgage loan", a loan to a natural person made primarily for personal, family or 269 household purposes secured wholly or partially by a mortgage on residential property.

270 "Residential property", real property located in the commonwealth having thereon a 271 dwelling house with accommodations for 4 or less separate households and occupied, or to be

272 occupied, in whole or in part by the obligor on the mortgage debt; provided, however, that 273 residential property shall be limited to the principal residence of a person; provided further, that 274 residential property shall not include an investment property or residence other than a primary 275 residence; and provided further, that residential property shall not include residential property 276 taken in whole or in part as collateral for a commercial loan.

277 (a) A creditor shall not publish notice of foreclosure, pursuant to section 14, when it 278 knows or should know that it is not the present holder of the mortgage loan, including, without 279 limitation, if the creditor is not the original mortgagee and commences foreclosure without 280 possessing a valid written, signed and dated assignment evidencing the assignment of the 281 mortgage.

282 (b) A creditor violates this chapter if it imposes upon a third party the cost of correcting, 283 curing, or confirming documentation relating to the sale, transfer, or assignment of a mortgage 284 loan, including, without limitation, a creditor shall bear the costs related to curative actions taken 285 because a foreclosure was commenced without the creditor's possession of a valid, written, 286 signed, and dated assignment evidencing the assignment of the mortgage, in violation of section 287 14. A third party may recover all of its costs for having to correct, cure, or confirm 288 documentation.

289 (c) A creditor violates this chapter if it makes statements to a state or federal court related 290 to foreclosure or compliance with this chapter, orally or in writing, that it knows or should know 291 are false, including, without limitation, statements about the offering of a loan modification, the 292 borrower's history of payments, the validity of the assignment of the mortgage loan, that the 293 creditor is the record holder of the mortgage loan, or the creditor's compliance with any other 294 requirements of this chapter.

295 (d) A creditor violates this chapter if the creditor imposes a fee upon a borrower for 296 goods not rendered or services not performed in connection with a foreclosure.

297 (e) No person shall give and no person shall accept any portion, split, or percentage of 298 any charge made or received for the rendering of a service in connection with a transaction 299 involving a foreclosure upon a mortgage loan other than for services actually performed.

300 (f) The division of banks may adopt, amend or repeal rules and regulations for the 301 administration and enforcement of this section.

302 SECTION 4. The division of banks shall, in consultation with the office of the attorney 303 general, annually track the resolution of certain mortgage loans and provide a report of said 304 results to the joint committee on financial services not later than December 31.

305 SECTION 5. Section 2 shall take effect on October 1, 2012 and shall apply to all 306 mortgages of residential property located in the commonwealth which secures a loan before, on 307 or after the effective date of this act. Said section 2 shall not apply to such mortgages accelerated 308 or whose statutory condition has been violated under the terms of the mortgage to secure the note 309 prior to the effective date of this act.
