The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to home health aides.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 80B of Chapter 112 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 the 2008 Official Edition is hereby amended by inserting in the last paragraph after the words
3 "licensed practical nurse" the following:

4 "(8) the administration of or assistance with the administration of medications in the 5 home by a home health aide as defined under G.L. c. 111, § 72F, provided that such an aide has 6 completed agency training regulations to be drafted according to regulations promulgated by the 7 Board of Registration in Nursing and the Department of Public Health and that the 8 administration or assistance with administration is performed under the supervision of a 9 registered nurse. The delegation permitted under this subparagraph eight shall be limited to 10 medications which are oral, ophthalmic, otic, topical, intranasal, transdermal, suppository,

11 prefilled, or products which are administered by inhalation. Administration of medications by 12 intramuscular, subcutaneous, intradermal, intraosseous, intravenous shall not be permitted.

13 Agencies shall provide training and establish documentation protocols 14 according to the nurse delegation model and regulations to be drafted by the Board of 15 Registration in Nursing and the Department of Public Health. These regulations shall specify 16 that the registered nurse delegator and the home health aide are accountable for their own actions 17 in the delegation process and that no registered nurse shall be required to delegate if the 18 registered nurse determines it is inappropriate to do so. These regulations shall specify that 19 delegation of administration of medication does not alter the responsibility of the home health 20 agency or hospice to teach and the patient/family to participate in learning, self administration of 21 medications, whenever appropriate.

22 A nurse licensed under this chapter who delegates a specific nursing activity or 23 task in compliance with the rules adopted in these regulations shall not be subject to disciplinary 24 action by the board of nursing for the performance of a person to whom the nursing activity or 25 task is delegated.

26 SECTION 2. Section 9 of Chapter 94 C of the General Laws in hereby 27 amended by inserting in the first paragraph after the words “veterinarian when registered 28 pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 7” the following:

29 “a home health aide pursuant to the provisions of G.L Chapter 112 S 80B (8).”
