The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to foods containing artificial trans fat.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 94 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 58 the following section:-

3 Section 58A. (a) No foods containing artificial trans fat, as defined in this section, shall 4 be stored, distributed, held for service, used in preparation of any menu item or served by a 5 common victualler licensed under section 6 of chapter 140, except food that shall be served 6 directly to patrons in a manufacturer’s original sealed package.

7 (b) A food shall be deemed to contain artificial trans fat if the food is labeled as, lists as 8 an ingredient, or contains any kind of partially hydrogenated vegetable oil; provided, however,
9 that a food with a nutrition facts label or other documentation from the manufacturer which lists

10 the trans fat content of the food as less than 0.5 grams per serving shall not be deemed to contain 11 artificial trans fat.

12 (c) The department of public health and the local boards of health within their respective 13 jurisdictions shall enforce this section. The department of public health shall adopt rules and 14 regulations to secure proper enforcement of this section. A person who violates any rule or 15 regulation duly adopted by the department of public health pursuant to this section shall be 16 punished by a fine of not less than $25 and not more $1,000.

17 (d) The department of public health, in consultation with representatives of the 18 restaurant, food supplier and food producer industries shall, subject to appropriation, implement 19 a comprehensive education and outreach program designed to ensure compliance with this act.
20 The department shall include the following in the outreach and education program: materials for 21 common victuallers licensed under section 6 of chapter 140, about appropriate methods to ensure 22 compliance with this section; information for consumers and businesses about the health risks 23 associated with the ingestion of trans fat; guidance for consumers and businesses the 24 incorporation of healthy alternatives to trans fats in food preparation; and any other information 25 the department deems necessary to promote awareness of this section.

26 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect 12 months after the passage of this act with 27 respect to oils, shortenings and margarines containing artificial trans fat that are used for frying 28 or in spreads, except with regard to oils or shortenings used for deep frying of yeast dough or 29 cake batter. This act shall take effect 18 months after the passage of this act with respect to oils 30 or shortenings used for deep frying of yeast dough or cake batter and all other foods containing 31 artificial trans fat.
