The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to the enhancement and improvement of the Commonwealth’s laws relating to fire prevention..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 2 of Chapter 22D of the General Laws as appearing in 2 the 2006 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out in lines 6,7,8 and 9 the following
3 words: - A division of underground storage tanks, including the Underground Storage Tank
4 Petroleum Product Cleanup Fund Administrative Review Board as established by Chapter 21J.

5 SECTION 2. Section 2 of chapter 22D of The General Laws, as so
6 appearing, is hereby amended by adding to said section the following new paragraph: - The state 7 fire marshal may make rules and regulations to carry out any duty or responsibility mandated by 8 law.

9 SECTION 3. Section 2 of Chapter 148 of the General Laws, as so appearing, 10 is hereby amended by adding the following new sentence to said section: - However, such 11 records may be withheld by the Marshal, as he determines, during the course of an investigation.

12 SECTION 4. Section 8 of Chapter 148 of the General Laws, as so appearing,
13 is hereby amended by inserting after the first sentence the following sentence: - 14 "Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the marshal may withhold such information from 15 disclosure if, in the marshal's opinion, the release of said information may jeopardize any 16 investigation".

17 SECTION 5. Section 26 I of chapter 148 of the General Laws, as so 18 appearing, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-

19 Whoever is aggrieved by the head of the fire department's interpretation, 20 order, requirement or direction under the provisions of this section, may within forty-five days 21 after the service of notice thereof, appeal from such interpretation, order or requirement to the 22 board of appeals of the fire safety commission as provided in section two hundred and one of 23 chapter six.

24 SECTION 6. Chapter 148 of the general laws, as so appearing, is hereby 25 amended by inserting after section 33 of said chapter the following new section:

26 Section 33A. Suspension or Revocation of License; Notice

27 The marshal may suspend or revoke without a hearing any license, permit or 28 certificate issued under this chapter whenever the holder thereof has committed a violation of 29 any law, ordinance or by-law relating to the subject matter of this chapter, or of any rule or

30 regulation of the board of fire prevention regulations established under section four of chapter 31 22D, or any order of the marshal or the head of the fire department, the nature of which would 32 give the marshal reason to believe that the continuing operation by such holder constitutes an 33 immediate threat to the public safety. Upon such suspension or revocation, the marshal shall 34 forthwith send written notice thereof to the holder. Such notice shall specify the time and place
35 of the violation. The marshal, or any person to whom he has delegated his authority, may order 36 the license, permit or certificate of such holder to be delivered to him; and the license, permit or 37 certificate shall not be reissued unless, upon examination or investigation, or after a hearing, the 38 marshal, or his designee determines that the holder shall again be permitted to operate. Said 39 holder shall be entitled to a hearing within ten days of the suspension or revocation.

40 SECTION 7. Section 39 of chapter 148 of the General Laws, as so appearing,
41 is hereby amended by inserting after the fifth paragraph the following new paragraph:

42 Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, at any time after the 43 seizure of fireworks, a district attorney or the attorney general may petition the court in the name 44 of the Commonwealth to order the destruction, by the Marshal, of said fireworks seized in the 45 course of any arrest or investigation. The district attorney or the attorney general, shall notify the 46 defendant of said petition and shall thereafter certify to the court that such notice was duly made.
47 Unless the defendant consents to such destruction in writing, the court shall hold a hearing on the 48 petition. Such hearing shall be held not less than fourteen days from the date that notice was 49 made to the defendant. After the hearing, the court may make such orders as it so determines 50 relative to the destruction of the fireworks and may order that such destruction be made except 51 for a representative sample, which may be kept for an analysis for trial purposes. The Marshal or 52 an agent of the marshal shall destroy said fireworks upon the receipt of an order of the court or

53 upon receipt of an affidavit from the district attorney or the attorney general that such destruction 54 is with the consent of the defendant.

55 SECTION 8. Section 76 of chapter 233 of the General Laws, as appearing in 56 the 2006 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting between the word “vehicles” and the 57 word “the”, the second time it appears in line 7, the following phrase:- and the department of fire 58 services.
