The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to labor relations governing commuter rail employers working within the boundaries of the Commonwealth..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after Chapter 160 the 2 following chapter-

3 Chapter 160A. Labor Relations between employees engaged in the operation
4 and maintenance of commuter rail service owned by the Commonwealth or an agency thereof 5 shall be governed by the Railway Labor Act. Employees engaged in the operation and 6 maintenance of commuter rail service and in repair, maintenance and inspection of roadbed, 7 track, right of way, signal systems and locomotives and rolling stock, passengers cars and/ or 8 self-propelled passenger cars shall be afforded the full protection of all federal labor, pension and 9 safety laws pertaining to the railroad employees generally, including, but not limited to the 10 aforesaid Railway Labor Act, the Railroad Retirement Act, the Railroad Unemployment

11 Insurance Act, the Hours of Service Act, the Rail Passenger Service Act, Federal Employees
12 Liability Act and the Federal Transit Act and any subsequent amendments thereto. Any current 13 or future operator of such commuter rail service, whether by contract or otherwise, shall be 14 obligated to accept the transfer of all employees performing such service in accordance with their 15 established seniority, Existing labor contracts and future amendments to such labor contracts will 16 continue to apply, no matter who is the operator, until they are changed in accordance with 17 Section 6 of the Railway Labor Act. The Commonwealth, agencies of the Commonwealth, and 18 officials of the Commonwealth will not contest the applicability of the Railway Labor Act and 19 the other Federal law referred to herein to commuter rail workers and to commuter rail 20 operations, or any part thereof.
