An Act to remove unfair incumbent advantage from the ballot and to change "unenrolled" to "independent" ..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 41 of Chapter 54 is hereby amended by striking it in its entirety and 2 replacing it with the following:-

3           Section 41. Ballots for the use of voters in a voting precinct, polling place or town shall 4 contain the names of all candidates duly nominated for election therein, and, except as provided 5 in section forty-three, they shall contain the name of no other person.

6           To the name of each candidate for a state office shall be added the name of the city or 7 town where he resides, with the name of the street and number, if any, of his residence, except as 8 provided in section forty-one A. To the name of each candidate for a city office shall be added 9 the name of the street on which he resides, with his street number, if any and, to the name of 10 each candidate for alderman at large shall also be added the number of the ward where he 11 resides.

12 To the name of each candidate for a state or city office, except for city elections which 13 are not preceded by primaries, shall be added in the same space his party or political designation.
14 Failure to make a political designation shall result in the term "Independent" being used. There
15 shall be no designation indicating incumbency. To the name of each candidate for a town office 16 upon an official ballot shall be added the name of the street on which he resides, with his 17 number, if any and, except for town elections which are not preceded by primaries or political 18 party caucuses, the political designation contained in the certificate of nomination or nomination
19 papers. The town clerk shall add the words "Caucus Nominee" to the name of any candidate 20 nominated for a town office by a caucus held under the provisions of sections one hundred and 21 seventeen to one hundred and twenty, inclusive, of chapter fifty-three.

22 If a candidate shall receive the nomination of more than one party or more than one 23 political designation for the same office, he may, by writing delivered to the officer or board 24 required by law to prepare the official ballot, direct in what order the several nominations or 25 political designations shall be added to his name upon the official ballot and such directions shall 26 be followed by such officer or board.

27 For all elections following primaries, such direction shall be filed within the time 28 required by section three of chapter fifty-three for acceptance of a write-in or sticker nomination;
29 and for all other elections, within seventy-two hours next succeeding the last time for filing 30 nomination papers or certificates of nomination.

31 If, during said time, said candidate shall neglect to so direct, said officer or board shall 32 add said nomination or political designations to the name of said candidate upon the official 33 ballot in such order as said officer or board shall determine. The name of any person shall not be 34 printed on the official ballot or on ballot labels more than once as a candidate for the same office 35 nor more than once for any office wherein a full term and partial term running concurrently are 36 to be filled.

37 SECTION 2. Section 42 of Chapter 54 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 38 striking it in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

39 Section 42. Except as provided in section forty-one A, under the designation of the office,
40 the names of the candidates for office to be filled at a state election shall be placed on the ballot 41 by random selection next and by random selection the names of candidates of political parties, as 42 defined in chapter fifty, and the names of all other candidates shall follow in like order.

43 Under the designation of the office, the names of candidates for each municipal elective 44 office shall, except as city charters otherwise provide, be arranged by random selection, next and 45 my random selection the names of candidates of political parties as defined in chapter fifty, and 46 the names of all other candidates shall follow in like order. The names of candidates for different 47 terms of service in the same office shall be arranged in groups according to the length of their 48 respective terms, and the names of candidates nominated by single wards but to be voted for at 49 large, shall be arranged in groups by wards in like order. Blank spaces shall be left at the end of 50 the list of candidates for each different office equal to the number to be elected thereto, in which 51 the voter may insert the name and address of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he 52 desires to vote for such office; provided, however, that a mistake in stating the address of such

53 person shall not invalidate a vote if the address stated is sufficient to indicate the person for 54 whom the vote was intended. If the approval of any question is submitted to the voters, it shall be 55 printed on the ballot after the names of the candidates.

56         The names and addresses of the candidates for regional district school committees elected 57 district-wide at state elections shall be arranged by random selection; and the names and 58 addresses of all other such candidates shall follow in like order. No political or other designation
59 shall appear on the ballot. There shall be printed such direction as shall instruct the voter to vote 60 for the appropriate number of candidates from each community. If the state secretary cannot 61 accommodate all the names on the ballot in a particular community, he may in his discretion
62 print a separate paper ballot for candidates for regional district school committees.

63         Ballots shall be so printed as to give to each voter an opportunity by a cross (X) in a 64 square at the right of the name and designation of each candidate, or of each group of candidates
65 for governor and lieutenant governor and at the right of each question, his choice of candidates
66 and his answer to such question; and upon the ballots may be printed such directions as will aid 67 the voter; for example, "vote for one," "vote for not more than two," "yes," "no," and the like. On 68 each ballot shall be printed the words "'Official Ballot for", followed by the name of the 69 electoral district, city or town for which the ballot is prepared, and, if the content of the ballot 70 differs within a city or town, the ward and precinct of the city or the precinct of the town, if any,
71 the date of the election, and a facsimile of the signature of the officer who has caused the ballot
72 to be prepared. The state secretary shall prepare a sufficient number of ballots for the use of 73 persons qualified under section one F of chapter fifty-one to vote for electors of president and 74 vice president, upon which there shall be so printed the words "'Official Presidential Elector
75 Ballot for", followed by the date of the election and a facsimile of the signature of the state

76 secretary. A blank space shall be left at the end of the list of candidates for president and vice 77 president in which the voter may insert the surnames of candidates for president and vice 78 president, which are contained in lists submitted to the state secretary as provided by section 79 seventy-eight A.
