An Act to assess the impact of the public welfare system on the health and well-being of children.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. The Department of Public Health, in conjunction with other child and 2 family-serving agencies, shall conduct an annual child assessment as part of a child surveillance 3 study on the impact of the public welfare system on the health and well-being of the children and 4 youth (birth through age 18) of the Commonwealth. Said child health assessment shall include 5 but not be limited to: the measure and assessment of nutritional status (through height and weight 6 measurements); birth outcomes status (especially birthweights); poverty status; school readiness
7 status and safety status (including injury prevalence rates and hospitalization rates) of children
8 and youth in the Commonwealth. Said annual child health assessment statement shall be 9 submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Ways and Means, the Joint Committee on

- 10 Children, Families and Persons with Disabilities, the Joint Committee on Health Care Financing,
- 11 and the Joint Committee on Education by April 1 of each year.
