SENATE No. 652

By Mr. Berry (by request), a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 652) of Stefano Picciotto for legislation relative to the estate of the homestead. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to the estate of the homestead.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 188 is amended by amending the following language in Section 1 2 as follows:

3 “Declared homestead exemption”, an exemption in the amount of $500,000 created by a 4 written declaration, executed and recorded pursuant to section 5; provided, however, that: (1) 5 with respect to a home owned by joint tenants or tenants by the entirety who are benefited by an 6 estate of homestead declared pursuant to section 3, the declared homestead exemption shall 7 remain whole and unallocated, provided that the owners together shall not be entitled to a 8 declared homestead exemption in excess of $500,000; (2) if a home is owned by tenants in 9 common or trust beneficiaries, the declared homestead exemption for each co-tenant and trust 10 beneficiary who benefits by an estate of homestead declared pursuant to said section 3 shall be 11 the product of: (i) $500,000; and (ii) the co-tenant’s or trust beneficiary’s percentage ownership
12 interest; (3) except as provided in clause (4), each person who owns a home and who is benefited
13 by an estate of homestead declared pursuant to section 2 shall be entitled to the declared

14 homestead exemption without reduction, proration or allocation among other owners of the 15 home; and (4) separate estates of homestead may be declared pursuant to sections 2 and 3 on the 16 same home, and in such event: (i) if the home is owned by tenants in common or trust 17 beneficiaries, the declared homestead exemption for each co-tenant and trust beneficiary who 18 benefits by an estate of homestead declared pursuant to section 3 shall be calculated in the 19 manner provided in clause (2), and the declared homestead exemption for each co-tenant and 20 trust beneficiary who benefits by an estate of homestead declared pursuant to section 2 shall be 21 calculated in the manner provided in clause (3); or (ii) if the home is owned by joint tenants or 22 tenants by the entirety, the declared homestead exemption for the owners together shall be the 23 sum of $500,000 multiplied by the number of declarations recorded pursuant to section 2, plus 24 $250,000; provided, however, that the homestead exemption under this subclause shall remain 25 whole and unallocated among the owners; and provided further, that no owner who declares a 26 homestead, acting individually, shall be entitled to claim an exemption of more than $500,000; 27 and (5) the calculation of the amount of homestead exemption available to an owner shall not 28 sever a joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety. Notwithstanding any provision of any other 29 section of this chapter, if the owner or owners have occupied said home as a principal residence 30 for more than 1,215 days, the homestead filing requirement is hereby waived. Moreover, if the 31 owner or spouse becomes disabled as defined in Section 1 of this chapter, or sixty-two years of 32 age or older, after said principal residence had been occupied for more than 1,215 days, the 33 protection for such ownership and spousal interests shall increase to $500,000 per individual, 34 regardless of whether such declaration has been filed.
