SENATE No. 703

By Ms. Creem, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 703) of Cynthia S. Creem, Sal N. DiDomenico, Jennifer E. Benson, James E. Timilty and other members of the General Court for legislation to further define the dissemination of obscene material. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act further defining the dissemination of obscene material.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to provide for the immediate protection of minors, therefore, it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 28 of Chapter 272 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking the section in its entirety and replacing 3 it with the following:-

4 Section 28. Whoever purposefully disseminates to a person or persons he 5 knows or believes to be a minor or minors any matter harmful to minors, as defined in section 6 thirty-one, knowing it to be harmful to minors, and/or has in his possession any such matter with 7 the intent to disseminate the same to a person or persons he knows or believes to be a minor or 8 minors, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years or in a 9 jail or house of correction for not more than two and one-half years, or by a fine of not less than 10 one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars for the first offense, not less than five thousand

11 nor more than twenty thousand dollars for the second offense, or not less than ten thousand nor 12 more than thirty thousand dollars for the third and subsequent offenses, or by both such fine and 13 imprisonment. A person who disseminates an electronic communication, or possesses an 14 electronic communication with the intent to disseminate it, does not violate this section unless he 15 specifically intends to direct the communication to a person or persons he knows or believes to 16 be a minor or minors. A prosecution commenced under this section shall not be continued
17 without a finding nor placed on file. It shall be a defense in any prosecution under this section
18 that the defendant was in a parental or guardianship relationship with the minor. It shall also be a 19 defense in any prosecution under this section if the evidence proves that the defendant was a 20 bona fide school, museum or library, or was acting in the course of his employment as an 21 employee of such organization or of a retail outlet affiliated with and serving the educational 22 purpose of such organization.
