An Act to require the reporting of satisfaction of judgments awarding money damages..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1                   SECTION 1. [Small claims.] Chapter 218 of the General Laws is hereby 2 amended by inserting after section 25, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, the following 3 section:-

4                   Section 25A. Any party who obtains a judgment for money damages under the 5 procedure shall, within 60 days after full satisfaction of such judgment, file a notice of 6 satisfaction of judgment with the court that issued the judgment. Any party who fails to do so 7 shall be liable to the judgment debtor for any costs and attorneys fees awarded on motion in the 8 court's discretion that were reasonably incurred in proving that the judgment was satisfied in full.
9 This section shall not apply to a judgment that has been satisfied by levy of execution.

10 SECTION 2. [Civil cases.] Chapter 235 of the General Laws is hereby 11 amended by inserting after section 13, as so appearing, the following section:-

12 Section 13A. Any party who obtains a judgment for money damages shall, 13 within 60 days after full satisfaction of such judgment, file a notice of satisfaction of judgment 14 with the court that issued the judgment. Any party who fails to do so shall be liable to the 15 judgment debtor for any costs and attorneys fees awarded on motion in the court's discretion that 16 were reasonably incurred in proving that the judgment was satisfied in full. This section shall 17 not apply to a judgment that has been satisfied by levy of execution.

18 SECTION 3. [Summary process.] Chapter 239 of the General Laws is hereby 19 amended by inserting after section 3, as so appearing, the following section:-

20 Section 3A. Any party who obtains a judgment under this chapter that includes 21 money damages for rent shall, within 60 days after full satisfaction of such judgment, file a 22 notice of satisfaction of judgment with the court that issued the judgment. Any party who fails to 23 do so shall be liable to the judgment debtor for any costs and attorneys fees awarded on motion
24 in the court's discretion that were reasonably incurred in proving that the judgment was satisfied 25 in full. This section shall not apply to a money judgment that has been satisfied by levy of 26 execution.
