An Act relative to the compensation of a guardian ad litem.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 215 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking section 56A and inserting in place thereof the 3 following section:—

4 Section 56A. Any judge of the probate and family court may appoint a 5 guardian ad litem to investigate the facts of any proceeding pending in said court relating to or 6 involving questions as to the care, custody or maintenance of minor children and as to any matter 7 involving domestic relations except those for the investigation of which provision is made by 8 section sixteen of chapter two hundred and eight. Said guardian ad litem shall, before final 9 judgment or decree in such proceeding, report in writing to the court the results of the 10 investigation, and such report shall be open to inspection to all the parties in such proceeding or 11 their attorneys. The compensation, together with any expense, shall be fixed by the court and

12 shall be paid by the commonwealth or by one or both of the parties, as the court may order, upon 13 certificate by the judge to the state treasurer. The state police, local police and probation officers 14 shall assist the guardian ad litem so appointed, upon his request.
