The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven
—————

An Act relative to sentencing laws.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. There shall be a commission to study the issue of prison
2 overcrowding, the threat overcrowding poses to public safety and to make recommendations for 3 the reduction in the population of the commonwealth’s prisons, houses of corrections and jails.
4 The commission shall include and be co-chaired by the senate and house chairs of the joint 5 committee on public safety. The commission’s other members shall be the secretary of public
6 safety, the commissioner of the department of corrections, the president of the Massachusetts
7 Sheriff’s Association, and a representative of the Massachusetts Correctional Legal Services.

8 SECTION 2. Section 129D of chapter 127, as appearing in the 2004 Official 9 Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 14, the words “two and one-half days” and 10 inserting the following words:- three days

11 SECTION 3. Section 129D of chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby further 12 amended by striking out, in line 19, the words “seven and one-half” and inserting the following
13 words:- ten days

14 SECTION 4. Chapter 276, as appearing in the 2004 Official Edition, is hereby 15 amended by striking out section 42 and inserting the following new section:-

16 Section 42. If it appears that a crime has been committed and that there is 17 probable cause to believe the prisoner guilty, the court or justice shall, if final jurisdiction is not 18 exercised, admit the prisoner to bail, if the crime isailable and sufficient bail is offered;
19 otherwise, except as provided for in section 16 of chapter 125, such prisoner shall be either
20 committed to jail or placed under electronic supervision by the sheriff until trial. If a prisoner 21 cannot offer sufficient bail, the court may place them under electronic supervision by the sheriff 22 as an alternative to being committed to a jail.
