An Act preventing unnecessary vacancies in foreclosed homes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 244 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby 2 amended by inserting after Section 14A the following new section:-

3 Section 14B: Occupant Remaining in Possession after Sale

4 If at the time of a sale of residential real property conducted in accordance 5 with a power in a mortgage and with Section 14 of this chapter the mortgagor continues to 6 occupy such property in whole or in part, and if the purchaser at such sale is the mortgagee or 7 other person exercising the power of sale or a subsidiary, parent, trustee, or agent of such 8 mortgagee or person or if the purchaser at such sale is any other entity that engages in mortgage
9 lending or servicing or if the purchaser at such sale is the Federal National Mortgage Association
10 or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 11 the mortgagor, and any household members, shall be permitted to remain until binding purchase 12 and sale agreement has been executed for a bona fide purchaser who intends to occupy the

13 housing accommodation as such purchaser's primary residence and who is not a foreclosing 14 owner, where such agreement requires the housing accommodation or some portion thereof to be 15 conveyed vacant, the foreclosure sale purchaser may initiate eviction proceedings against the 16 mortgagor pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 239 of the General Laws in possession of the 17 property during the time the property is owned by the purchaser, provided the mortgagor

18 (1) makes monthly rent payments to the purchaser in an amount agreed to by 19 the mortgagor and purchaser or, in the absence of such agreement, an amount equal to the Fair
20 Market Rent as established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development
21 pursuant to 42 U.S.C. c § 1437f(o), as it exists or may be amended, for a unit of comparable size 22 in the area in which the property is located;

23 (2) does not commit a nuisance in the property or cause substantial damage to 24 the property or create a substantial interference with the quiet enjoyment of other occupants of 25 the property;

26 (3) does not use or permit the property to be used for any illegal purpose; and

27 (4) does not refuse the purchaser reasonable access to the property for the 28 purpose of making necessary repairs or improvement required by the laws of the United States, 29 the commonwealth or any subdivision thereof, or for the purpose of inspection as permitted or 30 required by agreement or by law or for the purpose of showing the unit to a prospective 31 purchaser or mortgagee provided.

32 If the mortgagor remaining in possession after sale fails to comply with the 33 conditions set forth in this section or if a binding purchase and sale agreement has been executed 34 for a bona fide third party to purchase the property from the foreclosure sale purchaser, the

35 foreclosure sale purchaser may initiate eviction proceedings against the mortgagor pursuant to 36 the provisions of Chapter 239 of the General Laws.
