SENATE No. 772

By Mr. Eldridge, a petition (accompanied by resolution, Senate, No. 772) of James B. Eldridge, Daniel A. Wolf, Stanley C. Rosenberg, Katherine M. Clark and other members of the General Court memorializing the Congress of the United States to restore free speech. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

Resolutions restoring free speech.

1 the First Amendment to the United States Constitution was designed to protect the free
2 speech rights of people, not corporations;

3 WHEREAS, for the past three decades, a divided United States Supreme Court has 4 transformed the First Amendment into a powerful tool for corporations seeking to evade and
5 invalidate democratically-enacted reforms;

6 WHEREAS, this corporate takeover of the First Amendment has reached its extreme
7 conclusion in the United States Supreme Court’s recent ruling in Citizens United v. FEC;

8 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court’s ruling in Citizens United v. FEC
9 overturned longstanding precedent prohibiting corporations from spending their general treasury
10 funds in our elections;

11 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court’s ruling in Citizens United v. FEC will 12 now unleash a torrent of corporate money in our political process unmatched by any campaign
13 expenditure totals in United States history;

14 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court’s ruling in Citizens United v. FEC presents
15 a serious and direct threat to our democracy;

16 WHEREAS, the people of the United States have previously used the constitutional
17 amendment process to correct those egregiously wrong decisions of the United States Supreme
18 Court that go to the heart of our democracy and self-government;

19 Now be it resolved that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts hereby calls upon the 20 United States Congress to pass and send to the states for ratification a constitutional amendment
21 to restore the First Amendment and fair elections to the people.
