An Act creating separate criminal offenses for assault committed with a firearm.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1                   SECTION 1. Chapter 265 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2004 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 15B the following new sections:-

3                   Section 15C:       Assault and Battery by means of a firearm; penalties.

4                   (a)       Whoever commits an assault and battery upon another by discharging a 5 firearm, large capacity weapon, rifle, shotgun, sawed-off shotgun, or machine gun as defined by 6 G.L. c. 140 §121 shall be punished.

7                   (b)       A person found guilty of section (a) above, shall be sentenced to the 8 state prison for a maximum penalty of life or no less than ten (10) years. The sentence imposed 9 on such person shall not be reduced to less than ten (10) years, nor suspended, nor shall any

10 person convicted under this subsection be eligible for probation, parole, work release, or 11 furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until he shall have served 12 ten (10) years of such sentence; provided, however, that the commissioner of correction may on 13 the recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other person in charge of a correctional 14 institution, grant to an offender committed under this subsection a temporary release in the 15 custody of an officer of such institution for the following purposes only: to attend the funeral of a 16 relative; to visit a critically ill relative; or to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric service
17 unavailable at said institution. Prosecutions commenced under this subsection shall neither be 18 continued without a finding nor placed on file.

19                   Section 15D:       Attempted Assault and Battery by means of a firearm; 20 penalties.

21                   (a)       Whoever attempts to commit an assault and battery upon another by 22 means of discharging a firearm, large capacity weapon, rifle, shotgun, sawed-off shotgun, or 23 machine gun as defined by G.L. c. 140 §121 shall be punished.

24                   (b)       A person found guilty of section (a) above, shall be sentenced to the 25 state prison for a maximum penalty of twenty (20) years but no less than seven (7) years. The 26 sentence imposed on such person shall not be reduced to less than seven years, nor suspended,
27 nor shall any person convicted under this subsection be eligible for probation, parole, work 28 release, or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until he shall 29 have served seven years of such sentence; provided, however, that the commissioner of 30 correction may on the recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other person in charge 31 of a correctional institution, grant to an offender committed under this subsection a temporary

32 release in the custody of an officer of such institution for the following purposes only: to attend 33 the funeral of a relative; to visit a critically ill relative; or to obtain emergency medical or 34 psychiatric service unavailable at said institution. Prosecutions commenced under this subsection 35 shall neither be continued without a finding nor placed on file.
