Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1(w) of chapter 151A of the General Laws is hereby amended by 2 inserting after the word “quarter” in the first sentence, the following words:-- ; provided further,
3 that if the individual has worked for 15 or more weeks and such deeming renders the individual
4 ineligible for unemployment benefits, the amount shall be equal to one twenty-sixth of the total 5 wages.

6 SECTION 2. Section 14(a) of said chapter 151A is hereby amended by striking out 7 paragraph (4) and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

8 “Unemployment insurance taxable wage base”, with respect to calendar years beginning 9 on or after January 1, 2013, the term “unemployment insurance taxable wage base” shall mean

10 not less than $20,900 and shall be adjusted yearly thereafter in an amount that represents the 11 percentage increase in the maximum weekly benefit amount as determined in section 29(a.)

12 SECTION 3. Section 25(e) of said chapter 151A is hereby amended by striking out the 13 words, “and in each of said weeks has earned an amount equivalent to or in excess of the 24 fourth paragraph the following paragraph:-

25 The receipt of any notice of termination of employment or of any substantial alteration in 26 the terms of employment within six months after an employee has provided evidence in 27 connection with a claim for benefits under this chapter, or has testified at any hearing conducted 28 under any provision of this chapter, shall create a rebuttable presumption that such notice or 29 other action is a reprisal against the employee for providing evidence. Such presumption shall be 30 rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence that such employer's action was not a reprisal

31 against the employee and that the employer had sufficient independent justification for taking 32 such action, and would have in fact taken such action, in the same manner and at the same time
33 the action was taken, regardless of the employee's providing evidence in connection with a claim
34 for benefit under this chapter. An employing unit found to have threatened, coerced or taken 35 reprisal against any employee pursuant to this paragraph shall rescind any adverse alteration in 36 the terms of employment for such employee and shall offer reinstatement to any terminated

44 redetermination an appeal therefrom solely with respect to the matters involved in such increase 45 may be filed in the manner and subject to the limitations provided in sections 39 to 40, inclusive.
46 If the amount of benefits would be decreased upon such redetermination, the matters involved in 47 such decrease shall be subject to review in connection with an appeal by the claimant thereon or 48 from any determination upon a subsequent claim for benefits which may be affected in amount 49 or duration by such redetermination. Any proposed decrease or increase of the amount of 50 benefits based upon such a redetermination shall not take effect if any party seeks timely review 51 in accordance with section 39(b). Subject to the same limitations and for the same reasons, the 52 commissioner may reconsider the determination in any case in which a decision has been 53 rendered by the board of review or a court, and may apply to said board or such court which

54 rendered such decision to revoke or modify such decision and the board of review or court may 55 affirm, modify or revoke such decision.
