The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to the civil commitment for alcoholism or substance abuse at certain facilities..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 7 of chapter 111B of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 26 – 29, the words, “or if 3 any such person is committed for rehabilitative purposes to the Massachusetts correctional 4 institution, Bridgewater or to the Massachusetts correctional institution, Framingham, he shall be 5 required to remain for a period of not less than ten days.”

6 SECTION 2. Section 7 of chapter 111B of the General Laws, as appearing in 7 the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the following 8 sentence:-

9 The department shall ensure that no one is committed to the Massachusetts correctional 10 institutions at Bridgewater and Framingham for rehabilitative purposes, pursuant to this section 11 or pursuant to section 35 of chapter 123 of the General Laws.

12 SECTION 3. Section 35 of chapter 123 of the General Laws, as appearing in 13 the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word “psychologist,” in line
14 33, the following words:- The person shall be assessed using a standardized evaluation tool to be 15 created by the Department of Mental Health in collaboration with the Department of Public 16 Health.

17 SECTION 4. Said Section 35 of chapter 123 is hereby amended by striking 18 out, in lines 41 – 49, the following two sentences:- “The person may be committed to the 19 Massachusetts correctional institution at Bridgewater, if a male, or at Framingham, if a female,
20 provided that there are not suitable facilities available under chapter one hundred and eleven B; 21 and provided, further that the person so committed shall be housed and treated separately from 22 convicted criminals. A person so committed may be released prior to the expiration of the period 23 of commitment upon determination by the superintendent that release of said person will not 24 result in a likelihood of serious harm.”

25 SECTION 5. Said Section 35 of chapter 123 is hereby further amended by 26 striking out, in lines 58 – 60, the words, “including the separated facilities at the Massachusetts 27 correctional institutions at Bridgewater and Framingham”.

28 SECTION 6. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the 29 department of mental health in collaboration with the department of public health shall study and 30 report to the joint committee on mental health and substance abuse and the joint committee on

31 public health the budgetary needs required to provide enough secure treatment beds to meet the 32 requirements of this section by December 31, 2012. The report shall include immediate 33 budgetary needs for fiscal year 2013 and projected annual expenditure requirements through 34 fiscal year 2018.
