1 SECTION 1. Section 4 of chapter 27 of the General Laws, as recently amended by 2 sections 6 to 10 of chapter 192 of the Acts of 2012, is hereby further amended by striking it out 3 in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

4 There shall be in the department, but not subject to its jurisdiction, a parole board, 5 consisting of nine members, to be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the 6 council, for terms of five years. The governor may, with the advice and consent of the council, 7 remove members from the board for cause, upon a written certification of such cause; provided,
8 that such member shall have the right to notice and the opportunity for a public hearing before 9 the council relative to such removal.

10 Whenever a vacancy occurs in the membership of the board the governor shall appoint a

23 an accredited four-year college or university and shall have had at least five years of training and 24 experience in one or more of the following fields:-- parole, probation, corrections, law, law 25 enforcement, psychology, psychiatry, sociology and social work; provided, however, that the 26 panel may, by unanimous vote, submit the name of a person who has demonstrated exceptional 27 qualifications and aptitude for carrying out the duties required of a parole board member, if such 28 person substantially, although not precisely, meets the above qualifications. At least 1 person on 29 said list shall be a professional with not less than 5 years of experience and training in adolescent 30 development and psychology, and shall be selected from a list of proposed nominees provided by 31 the following organizations: the Massachusetts Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics,

33 Psychological Association, Inc.; and the Massachusetts Psychiatric Society, Inc. The list of 34 names of such persons for each vacancy shall include one or more of the following, insofar as it
35 is possible to select such persons who are willing and able to fill promptly the existing vacancy

42 sociology, and a member of the Massachusetts parole staff. No fewer than 3 members of said 43 board shall be selected from fields of psychiatry, psychology, social work, or sociology.

44 The governor shall designate one of the members as chairman, said member to serve as

47 members of said board and shall be the appointing and removing authority for parole agents and

51 accordance with section forty-five of chapter thirty and the salaries shall be determined in 52 accordance with section forty-six C of said chapter thirty. Members shall devote full time to their 53 duties, and no member shall hold any other salaried public office or engage in any activity which

56 SECTION 2: Section 133A of chapter 127 of the General Laws, as recently amended by 57 sections 37 and 39 of chapter 192 of the Acts of 2012, is hereby further amended by striking it
58 out the first paragraph in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

59 Every prisoner who is serving a sentence for life in a correctional institution of the 60 commonwealth, except prisoners confined to the hospital at the Massachusetts Correctional

61 Institution, Bridgewater, except prisoners serving a life sentence for murder in the first degree 62 and except prisoners serving more than 1 life sentence arising out of separate and distinct 63 incidents that occurred at different times, where the second offense occurred subsequent to the 64 first conviction, shall be eligible for parole at the expiration of the minimum term fixed by the 65 court under section 24 of chapter 279 . The parole board shall, within 60 days before the 66 expiration of such minimum term, conduct a public hearing before any six members appointed 67 by the chairman to act as the parole board for purposes of granting or revocation of paroles.
68 Notwithstanding the previous sentence, the board may postpone a hearing until 30 days before 69 the expiration of such minimum term, if the interests of justice so require and upon publishing 70 written findings of the necessity for such postponement If a board member has a conflict of 71 interest to the extent that he cannot render a fair and impartial decision or that the appearance of 72 a board member would be unduly burdensome because of illness, incapacitation, or other 73 circumstance, the chair shall appoint another member of the board to the hearing panel. Whether 74 a member is unavailable for the purposes of this section shall be determined by the chair. Board
75 members shall appear unless said chair determines them to be unavailable. Under no 76 circumstances shall a parole hearing proceed pursuant to this section unless a majority of the 77 board is present at the public hearing.

79 SECTION 3: Section 133A of chapter 127 of the General Laws, as recently amended by
80 sections 37 and 39 of chapter 192 of the Acts of 2012, is hereby further amended by striking it
81 out the third paragraph in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

82 After such hearing the parole board may, by a vote of two-thirds of the hearing panel, 83 grant to such prisoner a parole permit to be at liberty upon such terms and conditions as it may 84 prescribe for the unexpired term of his sentence. If such permit is not granted, the parole board 85 shall, at least once in each ensuing five year period, consider carefully and thoroughly the merits 86 of each such case on the question of releasing such prisoner on parole, and may, by a vote of 87 two-thirds of the hearing panel, grant such parole permit. By request of the hearing panel, any 88 case may be referred to the full membership of the board for further consideration.
