An Act relative to punitive damages.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 229 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 2C the following section:-

3           Section 2D. A person who (1) by his negligence causes substantial bodily injury, as 4 defined in section 13J of chapter 265, to a person, or (2) operates a common carrier of passengers
5 and by his negligence causes substantial bodily injury to a passenger, or (3) is responsible for a
6 breach of warranty arising under Article 2 of chapter 106 which results in substantial bodily 7 injury to a person, shall be liable for punitive damages in an amount of not less than five 8 thousand dollars in such case as the person's substantial bodily injury was caused by the 9 malicious, willful, wanton or reckless conduct of the defendant or by the gross negligence of the 10 defendant; except that (1) the liability of an employer to a person in his employment shall not be 11 governed by this section, (2) a person operating a railroad shall not be liable for negligence in 12 causing substantial bodily injury to a person while walking or being upon such railroad contrary 13 to law or to the reasonable rules and regulations of the carrier and (3) a person operating a street
14 railway or electric railroad shall not be liable for negligence for causing substantial bodily injury 15 to a person while walking or being upon that part of the street railway or electric railroad not 16 within the limits of a highway. A person shall be liable for the negligence or the willful, wanton 17 or reckless act of his agents or servants while engaged in his business to the same extent and 18 subject to the same limits as he would be liable under this section for his own act. An action to 19 recover damages under this section shall be commenced within three years from the date of the 20 substantial bodily injury, or within three years from the date when the person who sustained such 21 injury knew, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence, should have known of the factual basis
22 for a cause of action, or within such time thereafter as is provided by section four, four B, nine or 23 ten of chapter 260.
