- (b) Notwithstanding any general or special law, rule or regulation to the contrary, if the department determines that any person has engaged in the placement or reception of a child under 16 years of age for family foster care or adoption and/or has provided family child care, large family child care, child care center care, school-aged child care program, group residential care, or temporary shelter care, without holding the required license or approval, it may order such person to cease and desist from such unlawful act or practice and may take such affirmative action, including the imposition of a civil administrative fine. The department may assess and collect a civil administrative fine not to exceed $1,000 for the first violation and a civil administrative fine not to exceed $2,500 for a second or subsequent violation. Nothing in this section shall affect, restrict, diminish or limit any other fine or remedy provided by law.
- (c) Upon petition of the department, the superior court shall have jurisdiction to enjoin any violation of said section 6, order payment of an assessed fine, or to take such other action that equity and justice may require.
