HOUSE No. 1358

By Ms. Garry of Dracut, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1358) of Colleen M. Garry and James J. Dwyer relative to child custody when a parent is on active military duty. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to child custody when parent is on active military duty.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 1) Amend Section 31A of Chapter 208 by adding at the end thereof the following:

2 (a) A party's absence, relocation, or failure to comply with custody and parenting time
3 orders shall not be considered in determining whether to modify a custody or parenting order if
4 the reason for the absence, relocation, or failure to comply is the party's activation to military
5 duty or temporary duty, mobilization in support of combat or other military operation, or military 6 deployment out of state.

7 (b) If a party with sole or joint physical custody or parenting time receives temporary 8 duty, deployment, or mobilization orders from the military that requires the party to move a
9 substantial distance from his or her residence or otherwise has a material effect on the ability of 10 the party to exercise custody or parenting time rights, the court may do both of the following:

11 (1) Issue a temporary custody or parenting time order for the period extending from the 12 date of the party's departure to the date of his or her return. This temporary custody or parenting
13 time order shall terminate upon the return of the party, at which time the prior custody or 14 parenting time order shall return to effect.

15 (2) Issue an order delegating all or part of the party's parenting time rights to a family
16 member with a close relationship to the

17 child, or a stepparent of the child, for the purpose of ensuring that the child's contact with 18 the party is frequent and continued while the party is deployed, mobilized, or on temporary duty,
19 if the court finds that delegating parenting time rights is in the best interest of the child.

20 (c) If a party's deployment, mobilization, or temporary duty will have a material effect
21 on his or her ability, or anticipated ability,

22 to appear in person at a regularly scheduled hearing, the court shall do either of the 23 following:

24 The following terms have the following meanings:

25 (d) "Deployment" means the temporary transfer of a member of the Armed Forces in 26 active-duty status in support of combat or some other military operation.

27 "Mobilization" means the transfer of a member of the National Guard or Military Reserve 28 to extended active-duty status, but does

29 not include National Guard or Military Reserve annual training.

30 "Temporary duty" means the transfer of a service member from one military base to a 31 different location, usually another base, for

32 a limited period of time to accomplish training or to assist in the performance of a 33 noncombat mission.

34

35 (1) Upon motion of the party, hold an expedited hearing to determine custody and 36 parenting issues prior to the departure of the

37 party.

38 (2) Upon motion of the party, allow the party to present testimony and evidence by 39 electronic means, including, but not limited to,

40 telephone, video teleconferencing, or the Internet.

41 2) Amend Section 11 of Chapter 209C by adding at the end thereof the following:

42 (a) A party's absence, relocation, or failure to comply with custody and parenting time 43 orders shall not be considered in determining whether to modify a custody or parenting order if 44 the reason for the absence, relocation, or failure to comply is the party's activation to military
45 duty or temporary duty, mobilization in support of combat or other military operation, or military 46 deployment out of state.

47 (b) If a party with sole or joint physical custody or parenting time receives temporary 48 duty, deployment, or mobilization orders from the military that requires the party to move a
49 substantial distance from his or her residence or otherwise has a material effect on the ability of 50 the party to exercise custody or parenting time rights, the 51 court may do both of the following:

52 (1) Issue a temporary custody or parenting time order for the period extending from the 53 date of the party's departure to the date of his or her return. This temporary custody or parenting
54 time order shall terminate upon the return of the party, at which time the prior custody or 55 parenting time order shall return to effect.

56 (2) Issue an order delegating all or part of the party's parenting time rights to a family
57 member with a close relationship to the

58 child, or a stepparent of the child, for the purpose of ensuring that the child's contact with 59 the party is frequent and continued while the party is deployed, mobilized, or on temporary duty,
60 if the court finds that delegating parenting time rights is in the best interest of the child.

61 (c) If a party's deployment, mobilization, or temporary duty will have a material effect
62 on his or her ability, or anticipated ability,

72 different location, usually another base, for

73 a limited period of time to accomplish training or to assist in the performance of a
74 noncombat mission.

75 (1) Upon motion of the party, hold an expedited hearing to determine custody and 76 parenting issues prior to the departure of the 77 party.

78 (2) Upon motion of the party, allow the party to present testimony and evidence by 79 electronic means, including, but not limited to,

80 telephone, video conferencing, or the Internet.
