6 those services or placement. In the event that such interference occurs, the Commission, the 7 Department of Mental Health, the Department of Mental Retardation or the Massachusetts
8 Rehabilitation Commission may petition the court for a temporary restraining order to enjoin 9 such interference.

10 (f) When a court order exists authorizing protective services for a person with a disability
11 who lacks capacity to consent and any person interferes with the provision of such court-ordered 12 protective services, the appropriate law enforcement agency shall enforce the order of the court,

23 temporary restraining order to enjoin such contact during the pendency of said investigation.

24 (h) The action may be brought either in the superior court for the county in which the 25 conduct complained of occurred or in the superior court for the county in which the defendant
26 resides or has his principal place of business. Said court may issue a temporary restraining order
27 or make such other orders or judgments as it may deem appropriate. The court issuing said order
28 against the defendant shall retain jurisdiction of the matter. Any person who is restrained as a 29 result of an action brought pursuant to this section may petition the court for a modification or 30 termination of the order upon ten days written notice to the petitioning agency and the to the

36 section to each appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over locations where
