1081 including materials described in the board guidelines and any materials submitted by the sex 1082 offender, the board shall prepare a recommended classification level for each offender. The 1083 recommendation may be made by board staff members upon written approval by a majority of 1084 members of the board.

1085 (1) Sex offender in custody. Not less than 6 months prior to their release or parole from 1086 custody or incarceration, the board shall notify the sex offender of their right to submit to the 1087 board documentary evidence relative to their risk of reoffense and the degree of dangerousness

1103 offender's final classification level and shall not be subject to judicial review. All agencies 1104 having custody of a confined sex offender shall cooperate with the board in providing notices to 1105 the offender and proper space to conduct hearings.

1107 sex offender was prosecuted may, within 10 days of a conviction or adjudication of a sexually 1108 violent offense, file a motion with the board to make an expedited recommended classification 1109 upon a showing that the sex offender poses a grave risk of imminent reoffense. If the petition is 1110 granted, the board shall make the recommendation classification within 10 days of the expiration 1111 of the time to submit documentary evidence. If the petition is not granted, the board shall make 1112 the recommended classification as otherwise provided in this section.

1113 (3) Sex offender not in custody. In the case of any sex offender (i) who, as of the 1114 effective date of this section, is not in custody and whom the board never issued a final

1122 dangerousness posed to the public. If the sex offender is a minor or has been deemed by a court 1123 to be incompetent at the time of the notification, notification shall also be mailed to the sex 1124 offender's legal guardian or agency having custody of the person in the absence of a legal

1135 in a waiver of the right to a hearing, and the board's recommended classification level shall 1136 become the sex offender's final classification level and shall not be subject to judicial review.

1137 (b) Hearings to Determine Final Classification Level. If any sex offender requests a 1138 hearing in accordance with subsection (a) to challenge his recommended classification, the chair
1139 may appoint a member, a panel of 3 board members or a hearing officer to conduct the hearing, 1140 according to the standard rules of adjudicatory procedure or other rules which the board may 1141 promulgate, and to determine by a preponderance of evidence the sex offender's duty to register
1142 and final classification level. If the sex offender does not request a hearing, the board's 1143 recommended classification level shall become the final classification level and shall not be 1144 subject to judicial review. If the sex offender fails to appear at his scheduled hearing, the board's 1145 recommended classification level shall become the sex offender's final classification level and

1153 any new information useful in assessing the risk of reoffense and the degree of dangerousness
1154 posed to the public by the sex offender, including materials described in the board guidelines. A 1155 new conviction shall not be required for such reclassification. The board shall promulgate 1156 regulations establishing the procedures for reclassification under this subsection.

1158 An offender may seek judicial review, in accordance with section 14 of chapter 30A, of 1159 the board's final classification decision and registration requirements. An attorney employed or 1161 board's final classification decision. The court shall reach its final decision within 60 days of the 1162 sex offender's petition for review. The court shall keep proceedings conducted under this 1163 paragraph and records from these proceedings confidential, and these proceedings and records

1188 in section 178L or (2) have completely exhausted the legal remedies made available to them to 1189 challenge their duty to register under sections 178L and 178M and have not prevailed in their 1190 attempt to eliminate their duty, nor shall a fee be assessed upon a sex offender until the offender

1197 waiver so granted shall be in effect only during the period of time that the sex offender is 1198 determined to be unable to pay the sex offender registry fee. The board shall establish procedures
