The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen
—————

An Act to enhance safety and security in courthouses.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 1: Chapter 265 of the General Laws, is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 13D the following section:

3 Section 13D1/4. Section 13D1/4. Whoever commits an assault or an assault and battery
4 in or on the property owned, leased or occupied by the Massachusetts judicial department or an 5 agency or committee thereof, including any trial or appellate court, during the time when the 6 courts are in session or open to the public may be punished by imprisonment in the state prison
7 for not more than three years or by imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for not more 8 than two and one-half years, or by a fine of not more than $25,000 or by both such fine and 9 imprisonment.

10 Section 2: Section 13C of chapter 268 of the General Laws, added by St. 1971, c. 524, is 11 hereby amended by striking our the first sentence and inserting in its place the following:--

12 Whoever causes or actively participates in the willful disruption of proceedings of any 13 court of the commonwealth may be punished by imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for 14 not more than two and one half years or in state prison for not more than three years, or by a fine 15 of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Nothing in this 16 section shall interfere with or prevent the exercise by any court of the commonwealth of its 17 power of contempt.

18 Section 3: Section 4 of chapter 275 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking 19 out the first sentence and inserting in its place the following:--

20 If the person complained of is convicted, he may be punished by a fine of not more than 21 one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months, provided that any threat to 22 cause bodily injury to a person on account of the person's performance of official duties as a 23 judge, employee of the judicial department, including but not limited to clerk magistrates, 24 probation officers, interpreters, stenographers, and court officers, prosecutors and attorneys may 25 be punished by imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for not more than two and one half 26 years or in state prison for not more than three years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand 27 dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Nothing in this section shall interfere with or 28 prevent the exercise by any court of the commonwealth of its power of contempt.

29 Explanatory Note. This proposal would make three changes in the current law to deter 30 persons from criminal conduct in court houses and against person engaged in the performance of 31 official duties in the courts, including court staff, jurors, prosecutors and attorneys, in order to 32 insure that those who work in the court system or come to our courts as jurors, witnesses, parties 33 or attorneys seeking justice or performing acts relating to the administration of justice will be 34 safe and secure.

35 Section one makes certain assaults and assault and battery offenses which are committed 36 on court property while courts are in session or open to the public felony offenses. Section two 37 increases the potential penalty for willful disruption of court proceedings from a one year
38 misdemeanor to a felony punishable by up to three years in state prison. Section three 39 establishes an enhanced penalty for certain threats to do bodily harm to court staff as well as to 40 jurors, prosecutors and attorneys, due to their performance of official duties, to a felony 41 punishable by up to three years in state prison.

42 This proposal does not establish any mandatory minimum sentences, does not restrict the 43 discretion of prosecutors, and has no fiscal impact.
