HOUSE No. 1554

By Ms. Peisch of Wellesley (by request), a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1554) of Robert S. Edwards relative to certain rights of persons with disabilities. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act further clarifying the rights of persons with disabilities.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. No group home shall interfere in the dating and marriage of a disabled
2 person. Any violation under the marriage law shall lead to a fine not greater than one thousand
3 dollars. No disabled person, including persons suffering from traumatic brain injury or other 4 head trauma, shall be prevented from getting married by a legal guardian or power of attorney or 5 family member. If a disabled person has been previously divorced, this should be added under 6 General Law chapter. 208, section 1A.

7 SECTION 2. Any disabled person shall not need the consent to get married if they are 21
8 years of age or over. No legal guardian or power of attorney or family member shall prevent a 9 disabled person from getting married on the basis of their religion.

10 SECTION 3. If there is a violation under this section, a disabled person or nondisabled
11 person shall have the right to make a complaint with the Massachusetts Commission Against 12 Discrimination under the commonwealth’s marriage laws.

13 SECTION 4. All persons with disabilities shall have the right to legal assistance when 14 drafting a last will and testament. No legal guardian or power of attorney or family member shall 15 have the right to exert pressure on any disabled person to sign a last will and testament. All 16 persons with disabilities shall have the right to be notified by regular or certified mail when their
17 last will and testament is being mailed to their legal counsel under chapter 192 of the General
18 Laws.

19 SECTION 5. All trust funds and annuities that are used for educational purposes shall be 20 tax deductible under chapter 192 of the General Laws. All persons with disabilities shall have the 21 right to change their power of attorney if there is proof that the power of attorney is not acting in 22 their best interest.

23 SECTION 6. All persons with disabilities shall have the right to be buried in the cemetery
24 of their choice.
