HOUSE No. 1594

By Mr. Rushing of Boston, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1594) of Byron Rushing and Elizabeth A. Malia relative to Sunday hunting, the protection of pigeons and penalties for the sexual abuse of animals. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to the repeal of certain archaic laws concerning animals.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 57 of Chapter 131 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby
2 amended by striking out lines 1 to 14 and inserting in place thereof the words: Sunday hunting
3 may be allowed and the Division of Fisheries and Wildlife shall promulgate such rules and 4 regulations as it deems necessary for the implementation and administration of this section.

5 SECTION 2. Section 132 of Chapter 266 of the General Laws, is hereby repealed.

6 SECTION 3. Said chapter 272 is hereby further amended by striking out Section 34, as 7 appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section: -

8 Section 34. Whoever commits a sexual act on an animal, uses an object to sexually abuse
9 an animal, or knowingly permits a sexual act with an animal on any premises under such person's 10 control, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 20 years or in a 11 house of correction for not more than 2 1/2 years, and by a fine of not more than $5,000.
