SEE HOUSE, NO. 496 OF 2011-2012.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act to protect consumers from usurious rates on credit cards.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 When there is a collection action against a consumer for collection on a credit card, the
2 credit card company can collect up to the usuary rate and no more.

3 Any change of terms to the credit card contract must be counter signed by the consumer
4 in order to be effective.

5 Any legal action involving a credit card contract, that claims to have charged an interest
6 rate in excess of the usury rate, shall be barred from being heard in Massachusetts State Courts.

7 Under any action for a credit card company, brought in Massachusett, Massachusetts Law
8 shall control.

9 If a credit card company has charged a usurious rate on a credit card, the statute of 10 limitations is hereby changed to 30 days.
