The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to uniformly located address numbers on all buildings in the Commonwealth.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 59 of chapter 148 of the General Laws as appearing in the 2004 Official Edition 2 is hereby amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in place thereof the 3 following sentence.

4 For requiring and regulating the numbering of buildings on or near the line of public or 5 private ways, so long as the numbering is of opposing color and at least 4 inches tall, 6 inches 6 above the front entry way or no more than 6 inches to the right of the front entry way and shall 7 be located above the front door handle, to the extent practicable. These numbering must be 8 placed in clear view of the public or private way in the interest of fire and police protection. The 9 city or town may prescribe by whom and the method in which it shall be done.
