HOUSE No. 1971

By Ms. Garlick of Needham, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1971) of Denise C. Garlick and others for legislation to further regulate newborn pulse oximetry screening for congenital heart defects. Public Health.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act regulating newborn pulse oximetry screening for congenital heart defects.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 32A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 17I, the 2 following section:-

3 Section 17J

4 Section 1. Chapter 32A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 5 17J, the following section:-

6 Be it enacted that birthing facilities shall be required to perform pulse oximetry
7 screening. The Department of Public Health shall require each birthing facility to perform a 8 pulse oximetry screening on every newborn in its care prior to discharge from the birthing 9 facility.

10 SECTION 2. Chapter 111 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting in the 11 following language in section 67F,:-

12 Section 67F "birthing facility" means an inpatient or ambulatory health care facility
13 licensed by the Department of Public Health that provides birthing and newborn care services.

14 "pulse oximetry screening" means a non-invasive test that estimates the percentage of 15 hemoglobin in blood that is saturated with oxygen; when performed on a newborns in delivery
16 centers is effective at detecting critical, life-threatening congenital heart defects which otherwise 17 go undetected by current screening methods

18 Each hospital and birthing center which provides newborn infant care shall submit to the 19 department for its approval a protocol for newborn pulse oximetry screening.

20 The Department of Public Health shall promulgate regulations to implement the newborn 21 pulse oximetry screening program.
