1           SECTION 1. Section 2 of chapter 32A of the General Laws, as most recently amended by 2 chapter 224 of the acts of 2012, is hereby further amended by inserting after the definition of

4           (j) “Family health coverage”, health insurance coverage for an employee and his or her 5 eligible dependents.

7           SECTION 2. Section 8 of chapter 32A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010

10          Section 8. For policies of group life insurance and accidental death and dismemberment 11 insurance purchased by the commission in accordance with the provisions of sections 4 and 5, 12 the commonwealth, on behalf of active and retired employees and their dependents, shall 13 contribute no less than 75 per cent of the total monthly premium or rate applicable to said 14 coverages and the active and retired employees on behalf of themselves or themselves and their 15 dependents shall contribute the remaining 25 per cent of the total monthly premium or rate, 16 except, that upon approval by way of an annual, or more frequent appropriation act, the commonwealth may contribute more than 75 per cent but less than the entire total monthly premium or rate. For all policies of family health coverage purchased by the commission in accordance with the provisions of sections 4, 5, and 10c, the commonwealth, on behalf of active employees and their dependents, shall contribute 80 per cent of the lowest cost family health coverage plan and the active employees on behalf of themselves or themselves and their dependents shall contribute the remaining total monthly premium or rate, except, that upon approval by way of an annual, or more frequent appropriation act, the commonwealth may contribute less than 80 per cent of the entire total monthly premium or rate. For all policies of individual health coverage purchased by the commission in accordance with the provisions of sections 4, 5, and 10c, the commonwealth, on behalf of active employees, shall contribute 80 per cent of the lowest cost individual health coverage plan and the active employees shall contribute the remaining total monthly premium or rate, except, that upon approval by way of an annual, or more frequent appropriation act, the commonwealth may contribute less than 80 per cent of the entire total monthly premium or rate. For all policies of family health coverage purchased by the commission in accordance with the provisions of sections 4, 5, and 10c, the commonwealth, on behalf of retired employees and their dependents, shall contribute 90 per cent of the lowest cost family health coverage plan and the retired employees on behalf of themselves or themselves and their dependents shall contribute the remaining total monthly premium or rate, except, that upon approval by way of an annual, or more frequent appropriation act, the commonwealth may contribute less than 90 per cent of the entire total monthly premium or rate. For all policies of individual health coverage purchased by the commission in accordance with the provisions of sections 4, 5, and 10c, the commonwealth, on behalf of retired employees, shall contribute 90 per cent of the lowest cost individual health coverage plan and the retired employees shall contribute the remaining total monthly premium or rate, except, that upon approval by way of an annual, or more frequent appropriation act, the commonwealth may contribute less than 90 per cent of the entire total monthly premium or rate. Each appropriation act as may be applicable, shall provide the necessary sum based upon the estimated monthly cost as required by section four and shall describe the ratio of contribution to be paid by the commonwealth and by the active and retired employees insured under the aforesaid sections. The description of the ratio may include a condition that if, as a result of a change in the total monthly premium or rate which occurs during the current or ensuing fiscal year from a change in a contract between the commission and the insurance carrier or carriers, the amount of the contribution paid by the active and retired employee and dependents is to remain unchanged and the difference in the amount thus paid and the total monthly premium or rate as changed is to be added to, or deducted from as the case may be, the contribution by the commonwealth. The aforesaid ratio shall continue until changed by a subsequent appropriation act and the aforesaid sum shall also include the commonwealth's contribution of the total monthly premium or rate required for coverages contained in other sections of this chapter as such contribution is provided in said sections.

With respect to any period of insurance authorized by this chapter which is in effect for an active employee and dependent, there shall be withheld from each payment of salary or wages

57 the amount authorized by this section, or, there shall be withheld a greater amount as provided in 58 the most recent applicable appropriation act. With respect to any period of insurance authorized 59 by this chapter which is in effect for a retired employee and dependent, there shall be withheld 60 from each payment of pension or retirement allowance the amount authorized by this section, or,
61 there shall be withheld a greater amount as provided in the most recent applicable appropriation 62 act. The commonwealth shall contribute a share of any additional premium which may be 63 required for coverage of an employee's dependent child who is nineteen years of age or over and 64 mentally or physically incapable of earning his own living, such share equaling the same ratio as 65 that paid on behalf of an active or retired employee and dependent.
