The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen
—————

An Act relative to the GIC.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 32A of the Massachusetts General Laws shall be amended by 2 striking section 3 in its entirety and replace with the following:-

3 SECTION 3. There shall be established within the executive office of administration and 4 finance, but not under its jurisdiction, a special unpaid commission, to be known as the group 5 insurance commission, consisting of the commissioner of administration and finance, the 6 commissioner of insurance, and nine members to be appointed by the governor, one of whom 7 shall be a retired state employee, one of whom shall be a health economist, and at least four of 8 whom shall be full time state employees, of whom one shall be a member of the Massachusetts
9 Public Employees Council, #93, AFSCME, Massachusetts State Labor Council, AFL-CIO, one 10 of whom shall be a member of the Massachusetts State Employees Association, NAGE, and one 11 of whom shall be a member of Local 254, S.E.I.U., Massachusetts State Labor Council,
12 AFL-CIO, and one of whom shall be a member of the Massachusetts Organization of State 13 Engineers and Scientists. Not more than five appointive members of the commission shall be 14 members of the same political party. No member appointed by the governor shall be an insurance 15 agent, broker, employee or officer of any insurance company. Upon the expiration of the term of 16 office of any appointive member, his successor shall be appointed in like manner for a term of 17 three years. The commission shall be provided with suitable offices and may, subject to 18 appropriation, incur expenses and appoint an executive director who shall be the executive and 19 administrative head thereof and who shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter thirty-one.

20 The commission may empower the executive director to appoint such employees as may be 21 necessary to administer the provisions of this chapter. There shall be paid by the commonwealth 22 to each appointive member of said commission the necessary expenses actually incurred in the 23 discharge of his official duties. The commission shall adopt such reasonable rules and 24 regulations as may be necessary for the administration of this chapter and shall make an annual 25 report to the governor and to the general court which shall include any modifications or 26 amendments made to contracts executed under this chapter and shall be in such form as to enable 27 employees to understand the benefits available from the insurance program, including the cost 28 thereof.
