An Act relative to discharge of indebtedness of principal residence from gross income.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 2 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by
2 chapter 28 of the acts of 2009, is amended by inserting in subparagraph (M) of paragraph (2) of 3 subsection (a) before the words “Any amount”:- (i).

4 SECTION 2. Section 2 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by
5 chapter 28 of the acts of 2009, is amended by inserting after paragraph (M)(i) of subsection (a)
6 the following:-

7 (ii) To the extent not otherwise excluded from gross income, in whole or in part, the 8 discharge of qualified principal residence indebtedness is excluded from gross income, subject to 9 the following conditions and limitations:

10 (a) Basis reduction.--The amount excluded from gross income by reason of subsection
11 (a)(2)(M) shall be applied to reduce (but not below zero) the basis of the principal residence of 12 the taxpayer.

13 (b) Qualified principal residence indebtedness.--For purposes of this section, the term
14 “qualified principal residence indebtedness” means acquisition indebtedness (within the meaning 15 of section 163(h)(3)(B) of the Code) for the principal residence of the taxpayer, up to and 16 including $2,000,000 if married filing jointly or $1,000,000 in the case of a married individual
17 filing a separate return.

18 (c) Exception for certain discharges not related to taxpayer's financial condition.--
19 Subsection (a)(2)(M) shall not apply to the discharge of a loan if the discharge is on account of

20 services performed for the lender or any other factor not directly related to a decline in the value
21 of the residence or to the financial condition of the taxpayer.

22 (d) Ordering rule.--If any loan is discharged, in whole or in part, and only a portion of 23 such loan is qualified principal residence indebtedness, subsection (a)(2)(M) shall apply only to 24 so much of the amount discharged as exceeds the amount of the loan (as determined immediately
25 before such discharge) which is not qualified principal residence indebtedness. The principal 26 residence exclusion take precedence over an insolvency exclusion unless elected otherwise.

27 (e) Principal residence.--For purposes of this subsection, the term "principal residence"
28 has the same meaning as when used in section 121 of the Code.

29 SECTION 2. This Act shall apply to discharges of indebtedness on or after January 1, 30 2013.
