HOUSE No. 2610

By Mr. Jones of North Reading, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2610) of Bradley H. Jones, Jr. and others for an investigation by a special commission (including members of the General Court) relative to the inventory tax in the Commonwealth. Revenue.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to the inventory tax.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall 2 be a special commission to study and report on the inventory tax. The commission shall consist 3 of 2 members of the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the 4 house, and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house; 2 members of the 5 senate, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the senate president, and 1 of whom shall be appointed 6 by the minority leader of the senate; 1 representative of the national federation of independent 7 business; 1 representative of the department of revenue; and 1 representative of the 8 massachusetts municipal association. The scope of the commission shall include, but shall not be 9 limited to, studying: the impact of the inventory tax on the state budget and on municipal 10 budgets; the budgetary cost of phasing out or eliminating the inventory tax; the financial and 11 employment impacts on businesses within the commonwealth; a comprehensive review and 12 evaluation of the inventory tax throughout the United States; and the results of reforming, 13 phasing out or eliminating the inventory tax throughout the United States. As used in this 14 section, the term "inventory tax" shall refer collectively to the following: (1) both the tangible 15 property measure and the net-worth measure of the non-income portion of the corporate excise 16 tax, as levied by the department of revenue; and (2) personal property tax, as levied by 17 municipalities within the commonwealth.

18 (b) The commission shall report the results of its investigation and study and its 19 recommendations by filing the same with the clerk of the senate, the clerk of the house of 20 representatives, the department of revenue, and the joint committee on revenue not later than one 21 year after the first meeting of the commission is convened.

22 (c) The commission shall conduct its first meeting not later than 60 days after the 23 effective date of this act.
