HOUSE No. 2764

By Ms. Walz of Boston, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2764) of Martha M. Walz and others for legislation to provide tax incentives for retirement savings. Revenue.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act encouraging retirement savings.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to encourage retirement savings, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 2 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official Edition, is
2 hereby amended by striking out subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subsection (d) and
3 inserting in place thereof the following:-

4 (D) In the case of an individual who is an employee within the meaning of section
5 401(c)(1) of the Code, the deductions allowed by section 404 of the Code to the extent
6 attributable to contributions made on behalf of such individual, except that deductions
7 attributable to elective contributions made by such individual shall be allowed to the extent they
8 do not exceed the limitation amounts in section 402(g)(1) of the Code. No contribution on 9 behalf of such individual shall be treated as an excess contribution under this chapter unless
10 treated as an excess contribution for federal tax purposes in the year made.

11 Eligible tax payers may be entitled to the deduction as follows:

- 12 (i) 25 per cent of the federally allowed deduction for tax years 2008, 2009, and 2010;
- 13 (ii) 50 per cent of the federally allowed deduction for tax year 2011;
- 14 (iii) 75 per cent of the federally allowed deduction for tax year 2012; and
- 15 (iv) 100 per cent of the federally allowed deduction for tax year 2013 and thereafter.
