80 (g) The division of capital asset management and maintenance, in consultation with the 81 board, shall develop a standard designer and interior designer evaluation form that shall be 82 completed by every public agency, as defined in section 44A of chapter 149, upon completion of 83 the work under a design contract under its control. The evaluation form shall be submitted to the 84 division and the board for the designer's or interior designer's qualification file. The official from 85 the public agency or the owner's representative shall certify that the information contained on the 86 designer's or interior designer's evaluation form represents, to the best of the official's or 87 representative's knowledge, a true and accurate analysis of the designer's or interior designer's

88 performance record on the contract. The public agency shall mail a copy of the designer's or 89 interior designer's evaluation form to the designer or interior designer who may, within 30 days, 90 submit a written response to the division and board disputing any information contained in the 91 form and setting forth any additional information concerning the building project or the oversight 92 of the building construction contract by the public agency as may be relevant to the evaluation of 93 the designer's or interior designer's performance. The division and board shall attach such a 94 response to the evaluation form for inclusion in the designer's or interior designer's qualification 95 file.

96 No public employee or public employer, as defined in section 1 of chapter 258, and no 97 person shall be liable for an injury or loss to a designer or interior designer as a result of the 98 completion of a designer or interior designer evaluation form as required by this section, unless 99 the individual completing the evaluation form has been found by a superior court of competent 100 jurisdiction to have acted in a willful, wanton or reckless manner. If a designer or interior 101 designer, seeking to recover damages resulting from injury caused by such an evaluation, 102 commences a suit against a person who has completed a designer or interior designer evaluation
103 form as required by this section, the public agency for whom the evaluation form was completed 104 or the commonwealth, if the evaluation was completed for a state agency, shall provide for the 105 legal representation of that person. The public agency or the commonwealth, where an 106 evaluation was completed for a state

107 agency, shall indemnify the person who completed the evaluation from all personal 108 financial losses and expenses including, but not limited to, legal fees and filing costs, if any, in 109 an amount not to exceed $1,000,000; provided, however, that no such person shall be 110 indemnified for losses other than legal fees and filing costs under this section if that person is 111 found by a court or a jury to have acted in a willful, wanton or reckless manner.

112 The awarding authority shall provide the designer or interior designer with a written 113 preliminary evaluation at the completion of the schematic phase of the project for informational 114 purposes.

115 A public agency that fails to complete and submit the designer or interior designer 116 evaluation form, together with any written response by the designer or interior designer, to the 117 division within 70 days

118 of the completion of a project shall be ineligible for receipt of public funds disbursed by 119 the commonwealth for the purposes of public building or public works projects.
