The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to scrap metal dealers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as appearing in the Official 2010 Edition, is hereby
2 amended by inserting after section 54A the following section:-

3

4 Section 54B. Applies to any activity licensed under Sections 54 and 54A

5 A dealer licensed under section 54 shall comply with the following procedures when
6 purchasing any metal product. Excluding metal recyclers or metal refiners who purchase used,
7 spent or encapsulated metals by means of a purchase order and invoicing.

8 (a) The Dealer shall keep a daily transaction log an account and description of all
9 materials purchased (i.e. copper wire, copper tubing, aluminum windows, etc.), the quantity
10 purchased (i.e. pounds, tons etc.) the material grade (i.e. # 1 copper, etc.) and any unique
11 distinguishing characteristic observed, if any, along with the name and residence of the person
12 selling the metal. The record file shall be retained by the Dealer for a period of one (1) year from 13 the date of the transaction. Accompanying documentation may be destroyed following the one
14 year period. If documentation is stored electronically said documents must be stored or backed-
15 up by any current electronic means and may be deleted at the completion of the one year period.

16 (b) The Dealer shall ascertain the identity of the seller of the metal s by requiring him to 17 produce a Massachusetts photo identification, and maintaining a copy of the same in the record
18 of transaction.

19 (c) During the one year period, the log shall be open for inspection by the state and local 20 police.

21 (d) Failure to comply with the above procedures shall be cause for the revocation of the 22 dealer's license.
