The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to signs on the Massachusetts Turnpike.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 6C of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 3 the following new section:—

3 Section 3A. The department shall not allow the construction of any sign advertising any 4 gasoline station, restaurant or other services to be erected or maintained on the Turnpike that is 5 larger than 80 square feet in area, excluding support, or is higher than 30 feet from the ground,
6 measured from the highest part of the sign. Signs in existence on the effective date of this statute 7 advertising any gasoline station, restaurant or other services erected or maintained on the 8 Turnpike which are more than 80 square feet in area, excluding supports, or higher than 30 feet 9 from the ground measured from the highest point of the sign, shall not be illuminated by any 10 artificial means before 6:00 A.M. or after 10:00 P.M.
