The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to financial literacy curriculum.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the department 2 of education shall authorize and assist in the implementation of programs to teach personal 3 financial literacy in order to equip students with the knowledge and skills needed to become self-4 supporting and to enable students to make critical decisions regarding personal finances. The 5 department shall develop a curriculum, materials and guidelines that local boards of education
6 and governing authorities of accredited nonpublic schools shall use in implementing the program
7 of instruction on personal financial literacy. The department shall also develop standards and 8 objectives for personal financial literacy for all grade levels within the existing math curriculum.
